MINUTES OF COMMISSION TO ORGANIZE
GULF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
December 5, 1984

The Commission met at 6 p.m. at Bill's Restaurant in Siler City, with all members present. Moderator, Jim Rissmiller, called the meeting to order and opened with prayer.

Carter Gillespie was elected Clerk of the Commission.

Carter Gillespie reported that the Committee on Ministry approved the covenant and terms of call for Pansie Evers to serve part-time (one-fourth) as pastor, at their December 4 meeting. Permission was granted for her to "move onto the field" as soon as organization and election were accomplished.

A procedure to organize the Gulf Church was presented and discussed over supper. Motion seconded and passed that procedure be adopted and taken to the representatives from Gulf, with suggested date for the congregational meeting.

Meeting was re-convened at Gulf, with Pansie Evers, Wayne Phillips, Robert Palmer and Kay Palmer present. The procedure was discussed with the representatives, and instruction given as to necessary and appropriate steps for them to take.

Members and representatives discussed the nature of the congregational meeting and worship service to be called, and the means for examination of officers.

At the end of discussions, Commission took the following actions:

Motion seconded and passed to meet at Gulf Presbyterian Church on January 6, 1985, at 3 p.m. for the purpose of organization.

Motion seconded and passed to meet at Gulf Presbyterian Church on February 17 at 3 p.m. for examination, ordination and installation of officers.

Motion seconded and passed to celebrate the sacrament of the Lord's Supper January 6 during congregational worship.

MINUTES OF THE COMMISSION TO ORGANIZE
GULF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
January 6, 1985

Meeting was opened with prayer by Moderator Jim Rissmiller. Members present were Carter Gillespie, Doris Betts, Mitchell Causey, Mary Hayes Holmes, and Nancy Gowdy. Procedure for the congregational meeting and worship was reviewed. Commission recessed until 3:00 p.m. when it joined the congregation for worship, The Rev. Jim Rissmiller presiding, and Commissioner Mary Hayes Holmes leading prayer.

The petition for organization was presented to the Moderator, and Commission voted to accept it and officially constitute the church in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). The Charter Members were received by transfer of letter.

A congregational meeting was called to order with Rev. Jim Rissmiller as Moderator, Carter Gillespie as clerk. A quorum was declared and the meeting was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

Motion was seconded and passed to take the name Gulf Presbyterian Church.

Given the choice to proceed with election of a pastor or a pastoral nominating committee, the congregation unanimously approved the motion to elect the Rev. Pansie C. Evers as pastor. The motion was seconded and passed to appoint former officers Wayne Phillips, Charles Phillips, and Robert Palmer to sign and prosecute the Call before Presbytery.

Upon the Moderator's question, the congregation duly voted to operate without a Board of Deacons.

Motion was seconded and passed to elect a Session of six (6). Nomination and Election of Elders proceeded by class:

Class of 1985: Robert Palmer, Betty Sue Jeffries
Class of 1986: Craig Senter, Charles Phillips
Class of 1987: Wayne Phillips, Kaye Palmer

All nominees were elected by acclamation.

Having concluded the business for which the meeting had been called, commissioner Mitchell Causey led a prayer of thanksgiving for the close of the congregational meeting. The offering was received and a prayer of dedication was voiced by Rev. Jim Rissmiller.

Commissioner Nancy Gowdy read the Scripture Lesson, Ephesians 1:11-23, and Rev. Carter Gillespie preached the communion meditation, "All in All."

The Commission retired to approve the budget and mission statement for the Gulf Church, and approved the call for celebration of Communion on January 13, 1985, and the first Sunday Worship Service held in each quarter. The monthly Pennies for Hunger offering was approved. Meeting was adjourned with closing prayer.

The next meeting of Commission is set for February 17, at 2:30 p.m. at the Gulf Church, for examination of officers. Worship will be at 3 p.m.

MINUTES OF THE COMMISSION TO ORGANIZE GULF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH February 17, 1985

The meeting of the Commission was called to order and opened with prayer by the Moderator, Rev. Jim Rissmiller. All Commission members were present, and Pastor, Rev. Pansie Evers.

Examination proceeded for ordination and/or installation of Elders-elect, Betty Sue Jeffries, Robert Palmer (previously ordained), Craig Senter, Kaye Palmer, and Wayne Philips. It was noted that Elder-elect Charles Phillips was providentially hindered from attendance.

The motion by Rev. Wilkes Macaulay, seconded by Mary Hayes Holmes, that the examinations be sustained in all their parts and in the whole, was passed unanimously. Praise was offered for the earnest and thorough preparation on the part of pastor and officers.

The motion that those officers present be ordained and/or installed as Elders of Gulf Presbyterian Church was seconded and passed. An order of service was approved for their ordination/installation for 3:00 p.m., February 17, 1985, at Gulf Presbyterian Church, and the Commission recessed until 3 p.m.

Rev. Jim Rissmiller opened the worship service for the congregation, and Rev. Carter Gillespie led the Invocation. After a welcome by the Pastor, Commissioner Doris Betts led the pastoral prayer. Wilkes Macaulay preached the sermon, "Making a Difference in our World."

Rev. Jim Rissmiller then asked the constitutional questions of the officers, and Commissioner Mitchell Causey proposed the congregation's questions. The pastor, commissioners and visiting members of Orange Presbytery joined in the laying on of hands, and Doris Betts led the prayer. Rev. Jim Rissmiller pronounced the Elders duly elected, ordained and installed, and they were extended the right hand of fellowship.

An offering was received for a Distress Fund established by the new Session, and after a prayer of dedication by the pastor, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Carter Gillespie.

As the congregation greeted the Elders, the Commission reconvened and approved the minutes of December 5, January 6, and February 17.

The motion was seconded and passed that, having accomplished the purpose for which it was erected, Commission asked to be dissolved by Presbytery. Upon motion to adjourn, Rev. Wilkes Macaulay closed with a prayer.

— Commission Action: The Commission approved the Congregation's chosen name and ordered it to be recorded on the roll of the Churches of Orange Presbytery as St. John's Presbyterian Church.

Acting to receive all Petitioners the Commission adopted the following:

7. The following Overtures were received from the First Presbyterian Church in Henderson and the Madison Presbyterian Church in Madison and were referred to the Bills and Overtures Committee:

WHEREAS, the retirement provisions of the Board of Annuities and Relief and Social Security are designed to make retirement at age 65 as smooth and financially painless as possible, each returning a regular portion of what has been remitted through the years, and

WHEREAS, this reduction comes prior to age 65, when the financial needs are higher, and

WHEREAS, justice and loyalty are not well served by such "co-ordination,"

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED THAT Orange Presbytery overtures the 197th General Assembly to bring this matter into the open, that the church may decide if it concurs with such provisions for its disabled professionals and, if not, take the step needed to correct it.

First Presbyterian Church
Henderson

WHEREAS, there are within all congregations times and circumstances when Elders or Deacons, who have provided extended, outstanding and dedicated service, can no longer serve their congregations in active office because of age or infirmity, and

WHEREAS, these congregations may wish to recognize the dedicated leadership of these individuals in particular relationship to the office in which they had previously served; therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the Presbytery of Orange respectfully overtures the 197th General Assembly (1985) of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) to direct the Stated Clerk to send the following overture to the presbyteries for their affirmative or negative votes:

Shall G-14.0200 be amended by inserting a new section G-14.0211 as follows:

Any Ruling Elder (or Deacon) who has served faithfully but whose ability to continue to render active service is limited by age, physical disability or other cause, may be elected Ruling Elder (or Deacon) Emeritus or Emerita by the congregation at a regularly called meeting, provided such Ruling Elder (or Deacon) is willing and indicates in advance recognition of this act as an honor. A Ruling Elder Emeritus (or Emerita) is not eligible to represent that church in the higher courts.

Madison Presbyterian Church

8. The following Resolution from the Committee on Ministry was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

WHEREAS, the United States Treasury's tax reform proposals recently submitted to the President would abolish the minister's parsonage allowance; and

WHEREAS, the President said that before submitting a tax reform proposal to Congress, he would "personally...review the Treasury's recommendations carefully along with public and Congressional reactions to them;" and

WHEREAS, the additional tax on a parsonage allowance or the fair rental value of a parsonage, in addition to the ruling in recent years disallowing mortgage interest as a tax deduction and increased Social Security rates, places an undue tax burden on clergy resulting in a 30-50% increase in taxes;

WHEREAS, it is unfair and inappropriate to single out this particular small group within society to be assigned such major tax increases, when those in the military and other government service presently granted similar allowances are not even considered; and

WHEREAS, increased taxes of the Church's ministers result in an indirect cost of billions of dollars to America's churches; and

WHEREAS, such a reduction in the Church's funds diminishes the Church's ability to minister to the needs of our society;

BE IT RESOLVED that Orange Presbytery find the Treasury's proposal to abolish the minister's parsonage allowance unfair and worthy of strong objection; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Orange Presbytery register objection and urgent request for opposition to said proposal to the Secretary of the Treasury, the President, and our Senate and Congressional Representative in Washington; and

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that the Sessions of Orange Presbytery be asked to register their objection to this proposal of the U.S. Treasury, its inequities and anticipated adverse effect on the Church, and be urged to take whatever remedial action that they might deem appropriate.

9. The following authorization was approved by the governing body:

RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED that Orange Presbytery is authorized, from time to time, without limitation, to obtain credit, to discount notes and other receivables with, and to borrow money from Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Dean Witter Reynolds and Merrill Lynch and that the amounts to be borrowed (as authorized by Orange Presbytery and/or Council of Orange Presbytery), the maturities, interest rates, security (if any) and all other terms and provisions of any loan or credit arrangement be left to the discretion of the treasurer (Joyce P. Bauer) or the Executive Presbyter (Dr. Alfred E. Thomas) and they are authorized to execute in the name of this organization agreements, indemnities, guarantees, notes and other instruments arranging credit arrangements, loans or renewals thereof, and to endorse, assign and guarantee receivables and other obligations.

E. That the Presbytery acknowledge with pleasure that Evelyn Edwards has been certified by the General Assembly Mission Board as an Associate in Christian Education.

F. That the Presbytery approve the election of John Mack Walker as Pastor Emeritus of the First Presbyterian Church, Roanoke Rapids, N.C.

G. That Orange Presbytery grant Ralph C. Teasley, Sr. a release from the exercise of the ordained ministry and assigned to membership in Milner Memorial Presbyterian Church in Raleigh, N.C. in accordance with the Book of Order G-11.0414 as follows:

If a minister concerning whom no inquiry has been initiated pursuant to D-7.0200 and D-7.0800, against whom no charges have been filed, and who otherwise is in good standing, shall make application to be released from the exercise of the ordained ministry, the presbytery shall delete that person's name from the appropriate roll of presbytery and give that person a certificate of membership to a particular church. The presbytery shall retain a roll of persons so deleted with date of deletions, date of ordination, and place of ordination. No judgment of failure on the part of the minister is implied in this action.

Release from the exercise of the ordained office of a minister of the Word requires a discontinuance of all functions of that office. The designations reverend, minister, pastor, or other similar term shall not be used. The status of a minister who has been so released shall be the same as any church member.

Should a person released under this section later desire to be restored to continuing membership in presbytery, that person shall make application to the presbytery that granted the release, and upon approval of that presbytery, the reaffirmation of ordination vows, and resumption of a ministry that qualifies that person for continuing membership in presbytery, the person shall be restored to the exercise of the ordained office without reordination.

RECOMMENDATION (Commissioners to the Synod)

That Orange Presbytery approve the following formula to elect commissioners to Synod. The formula should give fair representation to churches of all sizes and also give approximately equal representation based on the total membership in a group.

Number of commissioners has been reduced 24 ministers and 24 elders. In an effort to work out an equitable formula, by which to nominate commissioners, the following factors have been considered:

Ministers	Churches	Total Members
126 Pastors (Active)	106 under 500 members	16,405
38 Retired Ministers	12 over 501 members	8,357
53 Administrative, Professors, etc.	7 over 1,000 members	13,900
217 TOTAL	125	38,662

The following formula should give fair representation to churches of all sizes and also give approximately equal representation based on the total membership in a group.

REPORT OF THE BILLS AND OVERTURES COMMITTEE

The Bills and Overtures Committee reported as follows:

1. Motion passed that the Presbytery adopt the Overture from the First Church, Henderson, (as printed under communications from Stated Clerk) and

   BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that Orange Presbytery overtures the 197th General Assembly to study the financial injustices of this matter as it relates to the new Pension Plan (which will be presented at this Assembly) in its provisions for its disabled professionals and to take steps necessary to correct it.

2. Motion passed that the Overture from the Madison Church concerning reinstating the office of Elder Emeritus be answered in the negative (as printed under communications from Stated Clerk).

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The Committee on Resolutions reported as follows:

Concerning the resolution submitted by the Committee on Ministry dealing with tax discrimination against ordained ministers (printed under communications from Stated Clerk): The Presbytery voted to ask the Moderator to appoint a committee to study the matter and report to the April 1985 meeting of Presbytery.

The following resolution was adopted by the governing body.

RESOLUTION

It is not exactly the kind of day when one feels encouraged to "sing in the rain." Therefore the warm and cordial greetings we received as we arrived at Ernest Myatt Presbyterian Church were especially appreciated. We knew we were "well-come" to this place, that our coming had been anticipated and many plans were well in place for our hospitality.

For this welcome, Orange Presbytery, in its fifty-second meeting, expresses its thanks to the pastor, the Session, and the congregation of the Ernest Myatt Presbyterian Church. You made a rainy day bright.

A special word of thanks is also expressed to mothers of children in the Day Care Center and other members of the church for preparing and serving the delicious noon meal.

We are well-come. Thanks be to God. We are welcome here — we'll come again some other rainy day.

FINANCIAL REPORTS

The financial reports for the year ending December 31, 1984 were admitted to record.

ADJOURNMENT

The governing body was led in closing worship by Neil Bain, pastor of the Ernest Myatt Presbyterian Church. The meeting was adjourned to meet in stated session on April 23, 1985 at the Church of the Covenant in Greensboro.

Norman Whitney, Moderator
Alfred Thomas, Stated Clerk
James J. Watkins, Associate Stated Clerk

RESOLUTION RE OVERTURE BY PRESBYTERY OF CHICAGO ON AMENDING PERSONNEL PROCEDURES AND POLICIES FOR ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

WHEREAS the principle of "consultation" honors the interdependent nature of our polity;

WHEREAS the practice of "consultation" — as used in the Book of Order to describe administrative staff procedures and policies among the governing bodies — provides desired coordination while maintaining the integrity of each governing body;

WHEREAS procedures to implement consultation are still being worked out;

WHEREAS consultation affirms mutuality and respect among governing bodies, while requiring approval of the establishment of administrative staff positions in the presbytery by the synod council and in the synod by the General Assembly Council implies a control which fosters mistrust;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that Orange Presbytery record its opposition to the amendments as proposed in the overture by the Presbytery of Chicago.

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL

The Council met March 5 and April 2, 1985 and had no actions to report.

RECOMMENDATION

That the Presbytery hear from the following: APPROVED

1. Capital Funds Campaign - Charles Williams gave an update on the campaign. The Orange Presbytery/Presbyterian Homes, Inc. unified campaign now totals $4,008,709. This has been achieved through special gifts to the Homes by over 450 individual Presbyterians, full or partial decisions in 61 of our 127 churches, and several other special gifts, pledges, and letters of intent must be thanked and congratulated. Much work remains to be done. Most of the decisions taken by the Sessions still require the organizing of fund raising actively at the local level before the various goals which have been accepted or action of intention is fully backed up with signed pledges. Finally the potential among the churches yet to be heard from indicates an ability to add another $750,000 to $1,000,000 to our totals and much work and potential remains for special gifts by individuals.
2. Peacemaking Committee - Kay-Robert Volkwijn spoke to the governing body on South Africa, its history and present day situation. David Wiseman announced that a retreat for peacemakers will be held at Camp Kanata on September 6-7. This retreat is "Putting the Peaces Together" and sponsored by Orange Presbytery's Peacemaking Committee.

3. Women of the Church - Tommie Thomas, president of the Women of Orange, reflected on the past year's activities of the Women of Orange.
4. Leadership Development Section - Mildred Hoggard spoke on the upcoming "Step Into Leadership" event to be held at First Burlington on September 21, 1985.

MODERATOR'S COMMITTEE

The Committee appointed by the Moderator (February 26, 1985 meeting) to study the Resolution presented by Committee on Ministry concerning the Treasury's tax reform proposals which discriminates against ordained ministers reported. The Committee was composed of John Bush, Richard Haar and Laura Smith. They presented the following Resolutions which were adopted by the governing body:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Orange Presbytery and its member churches, alongside other charitable organizations, are engaged in significant ministries which address the spiritual, emotional, and physical needs of thousands of people in our geographic area; and

WHEREAS, these ministries contribute to the health and vitality of our broader communities; and

WHEREAS, currently individuals are encouraged to contribute to these ministries by a tax structure which recognizes the value of persons supporting local charitable organizations (often resulting in people taking more responsibility for the needs of their community as they seek to ensure that their gifts of money and time are used wisely); and

WHEREAS, the U.S. Treasury's tax reform proposal recently submitted to the President would negate such an incentive for a majority of people (by disallowing a tax deduction for all contributions to charitable organizations which amounted to less than 2% of an individual's adjusted gross income) and thereby reduce the monies received and the ministries undertaken by charitable organizations;

BE IT RESOLVED that Orange Presbytery joins the growing voice of those who seek to promote the work of charitable organizations and strongly objects to the Treasury's proposal to alter the existing law regarding tax deductible contributions; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Orange Presbytery register objection and urgent request for opposition to said proposal to the Secretary of the Treasury, the President, and our Senate and Congressional Representatives in Washington; and

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that the Sessions of Orange Presbytery be asked to register their objection to this proposal of the U.S. Treasury and its anticipated adverse effect on the Church, and be urged to take whatever remedial action that they might deem appropriate.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, certain aspects of the present tax structure of the Federal Government are designed to promote the work of charitable organizations and community development; and

WHEREAS, the efforts of such causes contribute in significant ways to the enhancement of the quality of life for all; and

WHEREAS, the church through its clergy has regularly provided key leadership in this process; and

WHEREAS, the current tax law which offers special deductions to clergy allows churches, whose funds are limited, to hire competent leaders and compensate them at a level below what would normally be required to secure and support professionally trained leadership; and

WHEREAS, the U.S. Treasury's tax reform proposal recently submitted to the President would negate a significant tax deduction currently available to the clergy (it would abolish the minister's parsonage allowance, which in addition to the ruling in recent years disallowing mortgage interest as a tax deduction and increased social security rates results in a 30-50% increase in taxes); and

WHEREAS, increased taxes of the Church's ministers will result in a direct cost of billions of dollars to America's churches as they will have to increase salaries in order to maintain the current level of support received by the minister and his/her dependents; and

WHEREAS, such a reduction in the Church's funds diminishes the Church's ability to minister to the needs of our society; and

WHEREAS, the church recognizes the necessity of tax reforms which would limit the use of tax deductions for personal gain at the expense of other tax payers;

BE IT RESOLVED that Orange Presbytery strongly objects to the across the board abolishment of the minister's parsonage allowance; and

BE IT RESOLVED that Orange Presbytery supports a partial tax on parsonage allowance following the formula currently used to tax social security benefits (i.e., one-half of social security benefits are taxed when regular earnings for a couple exceed $32,000 and for a single person $25,000); and

BE IT RESOLVED that Orange Presbytery supports the continued development of a tax structure which would provide incentive for individuals whose work or investments contribute to the development of our communities and provide assistance to those in need; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Orange Presbytery register these views to the Secretary of the Treasury, the President, and our Senate and Congressional Representatives in Washington; and

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that the Sessions of Orange Presbytery be asked to respond in kind and be urged to take whatever remedial action that they might deem appropriate.

MOTION PASSED that these two Resolutions be communicated to other presbyteries for their consideration.

A. THE COUNCIL AND ITS WORKING UNITS

DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of clarity in understanding the nature and scope of the work assigned to the various groups within Orange Presbytery, the following definitions describe our understanding of the relationships between and among these groups.

WORKING UNIT refers to the Committee on Ministry and the five Sections of the Council which carry out the program and support functions of Orange Presbytery. Each Working Unit elects its own officers, and is represented on the Council by its Chairperson.

INTERNAL COMMITTEE refers to a committee which is composed entirely of members of the committee's parent body, which may be the Council or one of its Working Units. Offices of Internal Committees may be appointed by the parent body or elected by the committee, at the discretion of the parent body.

EXTERNAL COMMITTEE refers to a committee which has members who may not be members of the parent body (although some of the members may be). External Committees are elected by the Presbytery through its regular procedures and are always placed in three-year classes. The chairperson of External Committees are ordinarily appointed by the Working Unit through which the External Committee reports, or by the Council in the case of an External Committee established by the Council. External Committees may be established only by an action of the Council or the Presbytery.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE or TASK FORCE refers to a group appointed for a specific purpose with an expectation that their work may be completed in less than one year. Such groups may be appointed only with the approval of the Presbytery or the Council. If a Special Committee or Task Force does not complete its work within one year the parent body which established it must consult with the Nominating Committee about whether the Special Committee or Task Force should become a regular part of the Presbytery structure, subject to nominations and elections through regular procedures.

LIASION COMMITTEE refers to a committee composed of members of two or more Working Units appointed by those Working Units to coordinate functions in which there is some overlapping of their respective responsibilities.

AT-LARGE MEMBER refers to a person elected to a committee, council, section or other unit of Orange Presbytery through the regular procedures for nomination and election outlined in the manual of the Nominating Committee. For example, External Committees of the Working Units of Council may have members who are appointed by and from the Working Unit for a period of time of from one to three years, whereas AT-LARGE MEMBERS are elected by the Presbytery in three year classes (except when a person is filling an unexpired term.)

THE COMMITTEE ON MINISTRY

The Committee on Ministry (COM) has those responsibilities assigned to it by the Book of Order; the care of candidates; the pastoral care of ministers and their families; the visitation of Sessions; the professional development of ministers and church educators of the Presbytery; and, together with the Church Development Section, concern for the financial support of ministers serving congregations of Presbytery.

The COM has seven (7) Internal Committees:

CALLS AND VACANCIES is responsible for the relationship between the Committee on Ministry and churches seeking a Pastor.

PASTOR RELATIONS is responsible for supervising and directing the annual visits to resident ministers and arrangement for the annual visits/contacts with retired ministers and non-resident ministers on the roll of Orange Presbytery. This committee also monitors, reports and recommends to the COM guidance for ministers experiencing particular personal difficulties which warrant the attention of the COM.

PARISH RELATIONS is responsible for the bi-annual visits and review of minutes of sessions, and for monitoring, reporting and recommending to the COM guidance for congregations which may be experiencing difficulties.

ADMINISTRATION COMMITTEE is responsible for general oversight, coordination and guidance of the work of the COM. It has particular responsibility for the process of annual validation of calls of the ministers of Presbytery. This includes review, reporting and recommendations regarding terms of call, dissolution of pastoral relationships and ministers seeking special relationships with Presbytery.

FINANCE COMMITTEE recommends a budget to the COM annually, and monitors regularly the expenditures of all COM funds. This committee confers monthly with the Presbytery Treasurer regarding all financial activity relating to the COM.

LONG RANGE PLANNING regularly assesses the work of the COM, the needs of pastors and parishes, and plans for efficient ministry in accord with the principles of the Presbyterian Church, (U.S.A.) expressed in the Book of Order and the procedures of Presbytery.

LIASION COMMITTEE ON SALARY SUPPORT works with appropriate representatives of the Church Development Section to carry out those responsibilities regarding the use of Presbytery funds to supplement the salaries of ministers of churches unable to meet the minimum salary standards of the Presbytery.

The COM has three (3) External Committees:

It serves to develop a long range plan for church development and re-development within Orange Presbytery, consistent with the Book of Order, the Manual of Presbytery, and the POLICY AND STRATEGY FOR NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT IN ORANGE PRESBYTERY (see appendix) adopted by the Presbytery on July 24, 1984. This committee also reviews and evaluates annually the progress and development of churches receiving funding through the Section. Three persons from the committee also serve as chairpersons of the three External Committees of the Section.

Each of these External Committees functions to carry out the particular tasks assigned to it by the Church Development and Re-development Section.

The Camps Section is concerned with the efficient and effective operation of the camp facilities and programs of Orange Presbytery. This includes camp administration and operations; scheduling the summer program and year-round camp use; and working, through a liasion committee, with the Leadership Development Section to plan for the most effective use of the human and material resources of Orange Presbytery in carrying out its educational ministry.

The Camps Section has two (2) Internal Committees:

ADMINISTRATION is composed of the chairperson, vice-chairperson and secretary, and is responsible for setting the agenda for Section meetings, assigning Section members to External Committees, calling emergency or called meetings of the Section and other duties which the Section may assign to it.

FINANCE is composed of the vice-chairperson of the Section, who chairs this committee, and one Section member from each of the External Committees, appointed by the Chairperson of the Section. The Finance Committee is responsible for monthly review of the expenditures and receipts of the Camps Section in coordination with the Treasurer of the Presbytery.

The Camps Section has three (3) External Committees, each of which has three members of the Section (one from each class) appointed by the chairperson, and six members-at-large elected by the Presbytery in three-year classes. The chairperson of the Section designates one of the Section members on each External Committee to chair that committee.

LONG RANGE PLANNING develops and recommends to the Section a long range programmatic plan for Camping and Conferences in Orange Presbytery; suggests particular development goals to the Section based on a one, two, three-to-five, and six-to-ten year schedule; develops and annually re-examines the Master Site Plan for each facility; receives and responds to suggestions directed to the Section from other committees concerning changes in the long-range program and site plan; and relates the needs and concerns of the camping program to the Conference Center Task Force.

PROPERTY implements the facility-development goals set by the Section in the Master Site Plan; suggests changes in the Master Site Plan to the Section; suggests, with the management team (Staff Associate for Camps and Conferences and Camp Managers), the most efficient and economical methods by which to accomplish repairs and necessary replacements of camp equipment and buildings; and suggests facility usage policies and actions necessary for the Section to take with regard to violations of these policies.

PROGRAM implements the programmatic goals set by the Section, including all aspects of the summer program, staffing, recruitment, volunteer staff coordination, the delineation and execution of particular objectives to meet the stated goals approved by the Section; suggests changes in the Long-Range Programmatic Plan; conducts an annual evaluation of the camp program (including personnel performance, facilities, camp philosophy, and program execution); and serves as a LIASION COMMITTEE with appropriate counterparts from the Leadership Development Section to consider the most effective use of the human and material resources of Orange Presbytery in carrying out its educational ministry.

THE LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT SECTION

The Leadership Development Section is concerned with those programs and plans that strengthen individuals and congregations in Orange Presbytery. Some areas of concern addressed by this Section include Christian Education, Resources, Leadership Development, Youth Work, Men's and Women's Work, Stewardship Education, Worship Education and Singles' Ministries.

The Section has one (1) Internal Committee:

LONG RANGE PLANNING/FUNDING/EVALUATION has three members and is chaired by the chairperson of the Section. This committee has responsibility for designing a process of annual goal setting in light of the Presbytery's adopted goals and objectives for its educational ministries and the needs and evaluations of the External Committees; for initiating and implementing an annual budget building process for all the Section's work and Committees; and for monitoring the budget for the Section and each Committee in coordination with the Presbytery Treasurer, including making recommendations for transfer of funds within the Section's budget from one line item to another to meet unexpected opportunities.

The purpose of this committee is to provide educational and enrichment events for singles within Orange Presbytery; and to provide leadership training for local church leaders in singles' ministries. Up to three persons from other denominations may be co-opted for service by this committee to assist it in its work.

Amendment by the Council is by a simple majority of the members present and voting.

SUMMER CAMP PROGRAM

Paul Ransford, Staff Associate for Camps and Conferences, spoke to the governing body on the progress of the Summer Camp Program. There are approximately 120 campers registered at this time.

URBAN STRATEGY TASK FORCE

Joe Harvard reported on the progress of the Task Force and pointed out the ten prime learnings of the Task Force. VOTED: To communicate these ten prime learnings to the Council of Presbytery and to extend the Task Force for another year.

TEN PRIME LEARNINGS

1. Presbyterians in Orange Presbytery are engaged in a wide variety of important social ministries.

2. The nature of involvement of Presbyterians in these ministries is primarily in the form of leadership and financial support and the direct contact with the beneficiaries is marginal.

3. A significant ministry is undertaken by urban councils, but with little coordination, evaluation, or accountability to Orange Presbytery.

4. While urban life is ecumenical and interracial, our ministry has not reflected this diversity. There is a concerted effort at the present to broaden our ministry.

5. There is greater effort and financial investment by Presbytery and Urban Councils in new church development compared to assisting in the relocation or redevelopment of existing churches in changing neighborhoods.

6. There is no clear provision to support experimental or special ministries as part of an overall Presbytery strategy.

7. Some important ministries evolved and were implemented by dedicated individuals, rather than by official governing bodies such as Sessions or Presbytery.

8. There is a lack of conversation among churches and urban councils as they consider their mission and the impact of population changed on their congregations.

9. There is little local church and urban council input into Presbytery's overall urban ministry programs or financial allocations.

10. We are better at addressing individual needs than we are at dealing with root causes of urban problems. At the same time, there are many Presbyterians occupying influential positions in urban settings.

THE PRESBYTERY OF ORANGE

NOMINATING COMMITTEE MANUAL

The enclosed materials are recommended by the Nominating Committee for the approval of Presbytery to provide an official Presbytery Nominating Committee Manual. (That this manual be included in the Operations Manual of Orange Presbytery.)

OPERATIONAL PROCEDURES OF THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Nominating Committee

A. That the members of the Nominating Committee be nominated from the districts one layman, one laywoman and one minister from each district, for a three-year term. If district has only one vacany on the Nominating Committee, it will nominate a lay person or a minitser to replace the lay person or minister whose term of service has expired. If a district has vacancies in a given year, it will nominate the necessary person or persons to maintain equality in representation. (BO G-9.0801) From these nominations, Presbytery shall elect by district the necessary number to insure that each district is represented by one layman, laywoman and minister on the Nominating Committee at all times.

   The Nominating Committee shall elect its own chairperson for a two-year term. The immediate past presidents of the Men of the Church and the Women of the Church are ex-officio members bringing the total to 23.

B. That the Nominating Committee by responsible for gathering nominees for all offices which are directly responsible to Presbytery unless otherwise designated by the governing body (Commission, Council, etc.). (BO G-9.0801)

   NOTE: It is suggested that all Presbytery committees, commissions, and task forces in operation for more than a two-year period divide into rotation formats (classes) for the optimum participation from all districts.

C. Under the new structure there shall be the following major committees, commissions, or working units and the following minor committees:

   MAJOR: Council, Leadership Development Working Unit; Church Development Working Unit; Special Missions Working Unit; Administrative Services Working Unit; Camps Working Unit; Committee on Ministry; Committee on Representation; Permanent Judicial Commission; Nominating Committee and Orange Presbytery Foundation.

MINOR: Worship; Stewardship; Resource Centers; New Church Development; Church Re-development; Small Church Concerns; Family Ministry; Singles' Ministry; Community of Presbyterian Women; Youth Ministry; Children's Ministry; Theology and Culture; Refugee Resettlement; International Missions; Hunger Committee; Criminal Justice; Peacemaking; Finance; Docket; Long-Range Planning; Program; Property; Examinations; Candidates; Professional Development.

The Chairperson of each working committee is selected from Working Unit and is a part of the Working Unit.

A person can only serve on one major and one minor committee or unit. A person may serve on two minor committees at a time. A task force is not considered as a major or minor committee as long as it remains a task force. Serving on a Working Unit and a working committee of a Unit counts as two committees. At-large members shall be drawn from all 7 Districts. Internal committees may be filled at the discretion of the Council.

SYSTEM FOR THE ELECTION OF COMMISSIONERS AND ALTERNATE COMMISSIONERS TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY BY THE PRESBYTERY OF ORANGE.

I. The Nominating Committee, in considering persons suggested to the Committee as well as those identified by the Committee itself, will utilize the following criteria in choosing ministers and elders to be placed in nomination:

A. Elders have active commitment and involvement in the work of the church.
B. Ministers have active commitment and involvement in the work of Presbytery through committee work and attendance.
C. Knowledge of governing body issues and skills in procedures as shown in their functioning in church governing bodies.
D. Willingness to accept the responsibilities involved, i.e., attendance at preparatory meetings, attendance and participation at the Assembly, effective reporting to the Presbytery.
E. The commissioners should represent, as far as possible, the diversity of Presbytery with regard to age, sex, race, and Districts.

I. Considerations that will be used to further narrow the selection after the criteria are met:

A. A sequence list for ministers and churches showing years of most recent participation in the General Assembly.
B. Membership of the churches will appear on the eligibility list.
C. Representation by Districts will be considered.
D. Ordinarily, the Nominating Committee will not place in nomination two commissioners or alternate commissioners from the same church the same year.
E. Ordinarily, the Nominating Committee will nominate as commissioners those who have served as alternate commissioners the prior year.

III. Procedures for the process of nominating and election

A. Beginning with the April meeting of the Presbytery of Orange, the Nominating Committee will actively solicit from Sessions and ministers, including non-parish, suggestions for commissioners and alternate commissioners to the General Assembly.

A sequence list of the churches showing the most recent year a member of that church was a commissioner to the General Assembly will be provided. A sequence list of ministers showing the most recent year each was a commissioner to the General Assembly will be provided as a part of this solicitation.

B. November 1st will be the deadline for suggesting ministers and elders to the Nominating Committee. These suggestions must be accompanied by written biographical data and service information on each person suggested.
C. At the February meeting of Presbytery the Nominating Committee will ordinarily nominate the number of persons needed to fill vacancies, along with biographical information on each.
D. Further nominations will be accepted from the floor provided the person consents, has met the criteria for commissioner and provided written biographical data. Election will be by written ballot and decided by majority vote.
E. Alternates will be assigned to fill vacancies beginning with the person receiving the highest number of votes and continuing in that order.

FEASIBILITY STUDY-CHURCHWIDE CAMPAIGN

Claude Godwin spoke on the feasibility study pertaining to a Church-Wide Capital Funds Campaign.

REPORT OF THE BILLS AND OVERTURES COMMITTEE

The following resolution was adopted by the governing body:

RESOLUTION RE OVERTURE BY PRESBYTERY OF CHICAGO ON AMENDING PERSONNEL PROCEDURES AND POLICIES FOR ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

WHEREAS the principle of "consultation" honors the interdependent nature of our polity;

WHEREAS the practice of "consultation" — as used in the Book of Order to describe administrative staff procedures and policies among the governing bodies — provides desired coordination while maintaining the integrity of each governing body;

WHEREAS procedures to implement consultation are still being worked out;

WHEREAS consultation affirms mutuality and respect among governing bodies, while requiring approval of the establishment of administrative staff positions in the presbytery by the synod council and in the synod by the General Assembly Council implies a control which fosters mistrust;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that Orange Presbytery record its opposition to the amendments as proposed in the overture by the Presbytery of Chicago.

This resolution will be communicated to the other presbyteries for their consideration.

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

BE IT RESOLVED —

That the fifty-third convocation of Orange Presbytery, at the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant in Greensboro, N.C., express its thanks to our Lord Christ for His Church, and to the Moderator, and the Clerks for their grace and efficiency in this governing body. We are grateful

To the Pastor(s), Session and members of this congregation for the beautiful sanctuary, comfort, convenience and hospitality afforded Presbytery in its April 23, 1985 meeting;

To the organist, Rose Slonaker, for her expression of praise to God at the console of the Aeolian-Skinner organ, as she led us in choral worship;

For the life, witness and ministry of the 46 elders and 2 ministers whom God has called home to glory this past year;

To Dr. Douglas Oldenburg, Mecklenburg Presbytery, for his leadership in a study of the Biblical Vision of Economic Justice.

To those who led us in celebrating the communion of the Lord's Supper;

To Al Dimmock for his 39 years of faithful ministry upon his retirement;

To the ladies and those who helped prepare the refreshments and the delicious chicken dinner we all enjoyed — providing a time of rich fellowship and nourishment.

And the Presbytery and its participants for giving us all the inspiration to return home for fuller witness to Christ and His Church.

FINANCIAL REPORTS

The financial reports were admitted to record.

The fifty-third Stated Meeting of Orange Presbytery adjourned following closing worship.

The Docket was adopted as amended to include the report of the Administrative Commission on the Randolph Presbyterian Church, following the report of the Committee on Ministry.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM STATED CLERK

Alfred Thomas, Stated Clerk, presented the following communications:

1. Motion passed that requests for excused absences be granted by the governing body.
2. Motion passed that the Minutes of the April meeting of Presbytery be approved and printed as the official minutes of Orange Presbytery.
3. The congregation of the First Presbyterian Church in Raleigh has voted to be exempt from the provisions of G-8.0501 and G-8.0502 of the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).
4. The congregation of the Stony Creek Presbyterian Church in Burlington has voted to be exempt from the provisions of G-8.0501 and G-8.0502 of the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).
5. The congregation of the El Bethel Presbyterian Church has voted to be exempt from the provisions of G-8.0501 and G-8.0502 of the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

6. The Stated Clerk had received an overture from the Littleton Presbyterian Church. This was referred to the Bills and Overtures Committee as follows:

OVERTURE FROM THE LITTLETON PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

WHEREAS nearly 1,000,000 sheets of paper were used by the 197th (1985) General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.);

WHEREAS the huge volume of material sent to the commissioners prior to the Assembly made it virtually impossible to read the material with any depth of comprehension;

WHEREAS less than 5% of the commissioners were able to read, much less digest, all the material;

WHEREAS not a single commissioner to the 197th General Assembly was willing to say that he or she was adequately prepared to deal with the business at hand;

WHEREAS The Stated Clerk of the General Assembly has expressed his concern over the proliferation of print (see Reports to the 197th General Assembly, 11.008-11.009);

WHEREAS the Moderator of the 197th General Assembly encouraged commissioners to do something about the Presbyterian propensity "to pump paper";

WHEREAS many of the actions taken by the General Assembly are routine and are approved without opposition, debate, or question;

WHEREAS time spent on routine matters limits the time available for debate and action on substantive issues;

WHEREAS the reduction of printed materials would constitute better stewardship of both material and human resources;

RESOLVED, that the Session of the Littleton Presbyterian Church requests Orange Presbytery to send an overture to the 198th (1986) General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), requesting the 198th General Assembly to take the following actions:

(1) Instruct the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly to print in commissioners' material only those reports that contain recommendations for action other than simply the action to approve the report of the particular board, agency, committee, organization, or institution submitting the report. Such routine reports would ordinarily include, for instance, the reports of ecumenical bodies, organizations reporting to the Assembly under G-9.0600, National Council of Presbyterian Men, Presbyterian women, Presbyteries' Cooperative Committee on Examinations, Presbyterian Council for Chaplains and Military Personnel, and so on. Such reports could be printed in limited quantity ahead of time and mailed only to members of the General Assembly Committee which would most probably be assigned by the Bills and Overtures Committee the task of reviewing the reports. Reports would be available to other commissioners upon request.

(2) Amend the standing rules of the General Assembly to allow General Assembly committees to function as commissions when reviewing routine annual reports or minutes of agencies, boards, committees, organizations, or institutions. if it be necessary, irregularities or questionable items in minutes or reports could be brought to the attention of the whole Assembly when a particular General Assembly committee brings its report to the floor.

(3) Instruct the Stated Clerk and the General Assembly Council to consider additional measures for reducing the volume of printed material in the hands of commissioners as well as the volume of routine business that comes before the Assembly and to make additional recommendations to to 199th (1987) General Assembly. Consideration should include the possibility of shortening even those reports that contain recommendations by printing only the parts of the report that contain the recommendations or that provide the essential background for making a decision of the recommendations.

7. The minutes of the Commission to Install Richard Vines as Associate Pastor of the White Memorial Presbyterian Church in Raleigh were found in order and admitted to record.

The Council of Orange Presbytery
Durham, North Carolina

We have examined the balance sheets of the Current Funds, Endowment and Similar Funds and Property, Plant and Equipment Funds of Orange Presbytery as of December 31, 1984 and 1983, and the related statements of changes in fund balances and Current Funds revenues and expenditures for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of the Current Funds, Endowment and Similar Funds and Property, Plant and Equipment Funds of Orange Presbytery as of December 31, 1984 and 1983, and the changes in funds balances and the Unrestricted Current Funds revenues and expenditures for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

ORANGE PRESBYTERY

NOTE A--SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting Basis: The financial statements of Orange Presbytery have been prepared on the accrual basis except for depreciation accounting as explained below. The statements of Unrestricted Current Funds revenues and expenditures are statements of financial activities of Current Funds related to the years ended December 31, 1984 and 1983. They do not purport to present the results of operations or the net income for the years then ended.

The Presbytery maintains its books under the principles and practices of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds that are in accordance with activities, objectives, and restrictions specified by donors, sources outside the Presbytery, or by direction of the Board of Trustees or Council.

In accordance with bookkeeping practices recommended by the Presbyterian Church in the United States, of which Orange Presbytery is a member, the Presbytery holds open cash receipts and disbursements records for approximately two weeks after the end of the year in order to record year-end transactions with member churches and the General Assembly.

Revenues: Benevolence and per capita tax revenues are contributions made by the member churches of Orange Presbytery. Due to the voluntary nature of these contributions, they are recognized as revenues when they are received, except contributions received in advance are deferred.

All gains and losses arising from the sale or other disposition of investments and other noncash assets are accounted for in the fund that owned such assets.

Revenues derived from investments are accounted for in the fund owning such investments, except that revenues derived from investments of Endowment and Similar Funds are accounted for in the fund to which they are restricted or, if unrestricted, in Current Funds.

Restricted gifts, grants, appropriations, and other restricted resources are accounted for in the appropriate restricted funds. Such funds are then reported as revenues and expenditures of the Current Funds when expended.

Inventories: Inventories of paper and printing supplies held for resale to member churches are priced at the lower of cost or market on a first-in, first-out (FIFO) basis.

Property, Plant and Equipment: Amounts expended from Current Funds to acquire property, plant and equipment are accounted for as expenditures of Current Funds. Such expenditures are then recorded as additions to the Property, Plant and Equipment Funds in the statements of changes in fund balances.

In accordance with practices followed by similar organizations, the Presbytery does not provide for the depreciation of fixed assets.

NOTE B--NOTES PAYABLE

Notes payable of the Current Funds consists of the following:

	December 31 1984	1983

TOTAL	$26,294	$ 35,280	$30,480	$30,138

NOTE D--ENDOWMENT AND SIMILAR FUNDS AND RESTRICTED CURRENT FUNDS--Continued

During 1982, Orange Presbytery created the Orange Presbytery Foundation, Inc. a charitable and religious organization established to further the mission of Orange Presbytery. The Presbytery appoints all board members to serve on the Foundation's Board of Trustees. In 1984, Orange Presbytery transferred all of the endowment funds, plus the related interest income held in the current restricted funds, to the Orange Presbytery Foundation, Inc. The Foundation is under the direct control of Orange Presbytery, therefore the entities are consolidated in the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE E--CAPITAL FUNDS

Orange Presbytery has approved a capital funds campaign to raise $5.9 million in coordination with Presbyterian Homes Inc. The Presbytery's proceeds of $3.5 million will be used to finance the development of seven new churches and to make improvements to Camp New Hope, Presbyterian Point and the conference center. A capital fund was established to account for the receipts and disbursements associated with this campaign. This fund is classified as a current restricted fund in the financial statements. The first $175,000 of excess revenues are to pay Orange Presbytery's expenses associated with the campaign; all additional excess revenues will be used for designated purposes.

NOTE F--PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT FUNDS

Property, plant and equipment are stated predominately at estimated values due to the fact that either the properties were donated or cost was not available prior to 1974. The estimated values are based on a combination of insurance values, appraisals, and fair market values as established primarily in 1974. Additions to the fund since January 1, 1974 are recorded at cost or fair market value, if donated.

In addition to the properties recorded in this fund, the Trustees hold title to various churches in Orange Presbytery. This arrangement is for canonical purposes rather than for actual utilization; therefore, the properties are not included in the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE G--LEASES

Orange Presbytery rents it office building from the Synod of North Carolina. The lease on this building expired in 1983. A new lease is being negotiated and should be renewed in 1985. The present monthly payment on the building is $625. Recorded lease expense for this and other operating leases (which have expired or are within one year of expiration) totalled $13,639 in 1984.

NOTE H--RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During 1982, the Presbytery jointly purchased a house and lot with a member of the Executive Committee of the Presbytery. The Presbytery paid $31,107 and cosigned a mortgage note for $45,000. The remaining balance at December 31, 1984 was approximately $44,725. The mortgage note is included in the contingent liability disclosed in Note B.

C. Motion passed to adopt a per capita budget for 1986 in the amount of $197,157 and that it be prorated among the 39,041 communicants as $5.05 per capita.

D. Approved the request from the Selma Presbyterian Church to sell the former Belleview Presbyterian Church property to the Selma Church of Christ for $55,000 and that the Trustees of Orange Presbytery be authorized to execute the necessary legal papers to transfer title and to remit the proceeds to the Trustees of the Selma Presbyterian Church. Motion passed adopting the following Resolution.

RESOLUTION

Whereas the lands hereinafter described, sometimes referred to as the Belleview or Selma Church Property, were acquired by Granville Presbytery under Deed of May 31, 1945 recorded in the Johnston County Registry in Deed Book 455 on Page 524; and whereas upon merger of Granville Presbytery into Orange Presbytery as of January 1, 1972 the title to said property vested in Orange Presbytery; and whereas The Selma Church of Christ has now offered Orange Presbytery the cash sum of $55,000.00 for said real property, and Orange Presbytery has determined and hereby finds that $55,000.00 is a fair and adequate value and price for such property, and that it is in the best interest of Orange Presbytery that such offer be accepted.

Now, therefore, BE IT RESOLVED that the real property in Johnston County, North Carolina adjoining Eastern Manufacturing Company and White Street as acquired by Granville Presbytery under Deed of May 31, 1945 recorded in Johnston County Registry in Deed Book 455 on Page 524 be sold by Orange Presbytery to The Selma Church of Christ for $55,000.00 to be paid in cash at time of deed delivery and title transfer; and be it FURTHER RESOLVED that the Trustees of Orange Presbytery shall on behalf of Orange Presbytery, and upon receipt of the purchase price of $55,000.00, make and execute a good and sufficient deed to The Selma Church of Christ conveying the following described real property:

A certain tract or parcel of land in Johnston County, State of North Carolina adjoining the lands of Eastern Manufacturing Company and others, and bounded as follows viz:

BEGINNING at a stake southwest corner of Lot No. 39, on White Street, and runs N. 86° E. 150 feet to a stake corner of Lot No. 40; thence N. 8° E. 150 feet to a stake at the corner of Lots No. 36 and 43; thence S. 86° W. 150 feet to a stake corner of Lot No. 36 on White Street; thence S. 8° W. and parallel with White Street 150 feet to the point of beginning, and being Lots No. 37, 38 and 39, in the W. B. Godwin Development as shown by Map and Survey of H. A. Herring, Surveyor.

Same being recorded in Plat Book #4, pages 181 and 192, in the office of the Register of Deeds for Johnston County, and being the same real property described in deed of May 31, 1945 recorded in Deed Book 455 at Page 524 of Johnston County Registry.

E. Approved that the following persons be appointed as a Commission to perform the functions of a Session for the new church being developed by Frank Dew at the Church of the Covenant in Greensboro:

Z. N. Holler, Church of the Covenant

RUFUS GERALD SMITH

The governing body proceeded with a Rite of Retirement Service for Rufus Gerald Smith.

PSALM OF PRAISE — Psalm 84 Julia Strope

Leader: How lovely is thy dwelling place, O Lord of hosts!

People: My soul longs, yea, faints for the courts of the Lord; my heart and flesh sing for joy to the living God.

Leader: Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for herself,

People: Where she may lay her young, at thy alters, O Lord of hosts, my king and my God.

Leader: Blessed are those who dwell in thy house, ever singing thy praise!

People: Blessed are the men whose strength is in thee in whose heart are the highways to Zion.

Leader: As they go through the valley of Baca they make it a place of springs;

People: The early rain also covers it with pools.

Leader: They go from strength to strength;

People: The God of gods will be seen in Zion.

Leader: O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob!

People: Behold our shield, O God; look upon the face of thine anointed!

Leader: For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

People: I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

Leader: For the Lord God is a sun and shield; God bestows favor and honor.

People: No good thing does the Lord withhold, from those who walk uprightly.

ALL: O Lord of hosts, blessed is the one who trusts in thee!

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL

Phyllis Kort, Chairman, presented the report of the Council as follows:

Since the last stated meeting of Orange Presbytery, the Council has met twice - September 3 and October 1. The following actions of the Council are reported to the governing body as information:

1. Approved the allocation of $750 from designated reserves (unexpended funds from 1984) to develop a presentation on Mission Interpretation.

   WE, THE PRESBYTERIANS OF ORANGE is a slide and cassette presentation depicting the mission and programs of the General Assembly, Synod of N.C. and Orange Presbytery. This is an excellent program for your stewardship season. You might use it for family night suppers, church school classes, or any type of church gathering. Make reservation by filling in the form mailed with the Orange Book and returning to Presbytery Office. Length of the program is approximately 20 minutes.

2. Approved the recommendation of the Tithe of Life Task Force that Evelyn A. Kirkley complete the two-year term of Helen Buntin as Tithe of Life Intern working with the Cary Presbyterian Church and the Kirk of Kildaire and that Tithe of Life funds be allocated to these churches to implement the arrangement.

3. Authorized the designation of a cash asset fund of presbytery which will enable funds just received and others which will be received in 1986 and 1987 to be carried forward. These funds have been granted to Orange Presbytery (Leadership Development Work Unit) by the General Assembly for a project entitled "The Pastor As Educator In the Small Membership Church."

4. Asked the Capital Funds and Mission Development Committee to prepare recommendations to Presbytery at the appropriate time relative to distribution of undesignated funds from the Orange-Aid Campaign.

5. Acknowledged with pleasure the bequest of $100,000.00 to Orange Presbytery from the estate of Mrs. Mary Sue Hughes Loy. The income from this bequest will be used to establish "The Loy Scholarship Fund" in memory of her daughter, Suzanne Loy, and her son, Swain Hughes Loy. Scholarships are to be awarded to persons desiring to give their full time service to the Church and who plan to enroll at Davidson College, PSCE, or Union Theological Seminary in New York.

   A committee is being appointed to draw up proposed guidelines, which will be brought to the Presbytery for approval.

6. Received information on General Assembly policy regarding fund raising by church-related institutions and suggested guidelines for synods and presbyteries.

7. The resource, Money Matters, has been rewritten by staff. Each church is entitled to one free copy. Additional copies are available for $6.00 each.

8. "Step Into Leadership" was a significant success with 518 persons in attendance. The Council gave special commendation to Bob Poteet, Mildred Hoggard, members of the Planning Committee, and all others who contributed to its effectiveness.

9. Referred the request that the International Missions Committee be enlarged to the Nominating Committee.

10. Approved a grant of $10,000 from Hunger Committee funds to the Twin Streams Educational Center. In addition, the Hunger Committee has granted $3,500 to Orange Congregations in Mission to expand their Meals on Wheels Program and $1,200 to the Good Samaritan Project in Roanoke Rapids for the same purpose.

11. Activated an external committee on New Church Development to work with the DuRaleigh congregation on a financial program.

12. Authorized the inclusion in the Orange Book of the South Africa Fact Sheet.

The following recommendations were adopted by the governing body:

1. Voted to endorse PSCE's Campaign of Primise and to hear a presentation by Martha Lou Anderson at its April 1986 meeting.
2. Adopted the following policies/procedures concerning finances of Orange Presbytery:

RECOMMENDATIONS CONCERNING FINANCES OF
ORANGE PRESBYTERY
(Resulting from Management Letter, June 1985)

1. To alleviate cash flow problems and provide better control over expenditures, the Finance Committee will maintain monthly contact with the internal finance committee of each Work Unit reviewing the status of all budgeted line items and report any possible problems to the treasurer and bookkeeper.

2. Any increase in the annual budget not having an offset item which would provide an overage, will be underwritten by a similar increase of pledges from local churches at the time of the Presbytery action. Only the Presbytery has the authority to approve any change in the annual budget (increase or decrease).

3. If an overexpenditure of a section warrants additional borrowing by the treasurer, the work unit must budget the repayment of this loan in the subsequent year. The Presbytery will use its available cash for overexpenditures, only with the concurrence of the work unit owning these funds, before borrowing funds from the bank.

4. Presbytery will capitalize all assets when purchased, rather than waiting until the end of the year. Individuals/Work Units will notify the treasurer on an appropriate form of any purchases, disposals, and/or donated equipment, in addition to submitting an invoice for payment. Individual committees cannot purchase equipment; all assets will be owned and inventoried by the Presbytery for capitalization purposes. Any item costing $500 or more must be capitalized.

5. Capitalization of Construction Costs - Work Units experiencing construction cost associated with building maintenance, renovations, and additions will be capitalized if it extends the useful life of the asset and is more than a "routine" maintenance cost. This includes all material and labor costs on either capital expenditures or repairs and maintenance costs approved by the Work Unit or individual. The above mentioned form must accompany the invoice to the treasurer. All capitalized items will appear in the audit of Orange Presbytery as an asset of Orange Presbytery and will be accounted for annually until they are disposed of in some manner at which time a form will be submitted to the treasurer for the disposal of each item.

6. Travel - All air travel arrangements for staff and guest speakers of Orange Presbytery must be made by appointed staff members of the Presbytery through our travel agent. Committees inviting speakers traveling by air must notify the proper person in the office, submit a voucher indicating the program in which the guest is participating and the minutes which authorize the travel and account number to which the travel will be charged. The office will then order the ticket for the guest and Orange Presbytery will be billed accordingly.

7. Only authorized personnel will have access to the accounting software (programs). In addition, backup copies of all diskettes will be maintained to prevent the inadvertent loss of important financial data.

3. Amended the Manual so as to change the name of the "Special Missions Work Unit" to "Special Ministries Work Unit."
4. Adopted the following recommendations:

   a. Go on record as opposed to apartheid, a system that dehumanizes both the oppressor and the oppressed and by separating Christian brothers and sisters denies Christ's reconciling powers;

b. Advise its member congregations to seek ways by which they may be educated and informed of the true situation in South Africa, using as background information both the General Assembly statements of 1981 (Public Policy Statements and Declaration of Conscience on South Africa and Namibia) and the 1985 statement on Divestment;

c. Ask pastors and sessions to make specific reference to Alan Boesak, Desmond Tutu, Nelson Mandela, President Botha and other leaders (and their families) through prayers and minute for mission briefs;

d. Convey our support of the 1985 General Assembly decisions about South Africa to the Stated Clerk of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and ask him to convey this to the leaders of the Dutch Reformed Churches, the S. A. Council of Churches, and to the State President of South Africa;

e. Convey our opposition to apartheid and our support of General Assembly resolutions against apartheid to the President of the U.S., the Secretary of State, and the appropriate members of Congress.

5. Adopted the proposed Personnel Policies for Orange Presbytery. These are to be incorporated into the Manual; these policies supercede any pre-existing personnel policies and statements; and they are to be commended to churches in Orange Presbytery as guidelines for their consideration.

PERSONNEL POLICIES FOR ORANGE PRESBYTERY

01.00 PERSONNEL PHILOSOPHY IN THE WORK OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

01.00 The work of the Presbytery is to be understood within the context of the governing bodies of the Church as defined by the Book of Confessions and the Form of Government and within the context of its mission.

01.01 A Theology of Employment

Orange Presbytery is a community of faith called into being by God's grace in Jesus Christ. As such it is "a community of people known by its convictions as well as by its actions."

— This community of faith celebrates creation as an on-going phenomenon of God in the world. It acknowledges the sovereignty of God over the world and the Lordship of Jesus Christ over the Church.

— This community of faith is made up of people called by God into a covenant relationship. Here gifts are recognized and used for the purposes of God. This community of faith values the contributions of all its employees.

— This community of faith is a servant community. It offers its life for the world.

— This community of faith is an interdependent community within which particular responsibilities are accepted and acted upon.

Orange Presbytery is living testimony that the "God who creates life, frees those in bondage, forgives sin, reconciles brokenness, makes all things new, is still at work in the world." (G-3.0300).

Implicit in Christian theology are certain basic assumptions about persons which should be taken into account in the Presbytery's employment practices if the Church is to be faithful to its best insight.

Without such faithfulness the Presbytery will distort its witness. Through faithfulness the Presbytery will make life together in work more meaningful, productive and rewarding.

The basic assumptions are inherent in the central teachings of the Christian faith regarding the nature of persons. They are benchmarks which can guide the Presbytery in its employment practices.

Persons are created in the image of God. God is the creator; therefore the creativity of those made in God's image must be recognized and protected. A failure to allow this creativity denies God's creation and the continual creativity through persons.

The Christian Gospel sets people free from bondage to assume responsibility for themselves. This means that in the acceptance of this freedom a person finds worth and dignity. To deny the opportunity for the exercise of this freedom is to deny the worth and dignity of the individual.

A covenant agreement is the proper expression of a mutually-agreed-upon functional order in relationships. Employment is such an agreement in which two parties agree to function together in a certain way to achieve an agreed-upon objective or purpose.

As an employer the Presbytery must recognize and incorporate into its particular personnel system these basic assumptions of faith or it risks the possibility of being unfaithful to its own witness.

02.00 SCOPE AND APPLICATION OF THESE PERSONNEL POLICIES

The following guidelines are established as personnel policies with regard to all staff which the Presbytery employs. These policies are designed to be consistent with all applicable provisions of the Form of Government.

The Presbytery is free to amend, modify and change these policies at any time and will keep employees informed of such amendments, modifications and changes.

02.01 Practices and Procedures

The policies will be implemented through practices and procedures which are consistent with national, state, and local laws and regulations.

02.02 Operations Manual

These personnel policies will be administered in accordance with practices outlined in an operations manual/employee handbook which will be provided to all employees.

03.00 THE PRESBYTERY AS EMPLOYER

A basic principle in the structure of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) is that the governing bodies of the Church have assigned respnsibilities to enable the Church to carry out its mission.

In order to carry out its assigned functions, Orange Presbytery employs staff to assist in preparing for and in implementing its decisions.

The Presbytery, or its Council (with delegated authority), shall determine what persons may function as its representative and when, to what extent, and with whom such representation is appropriate. The role of representation is appropriate. The role of representative of the Presbytery may differ in degree of responsibility, of authority, of number of employees under direct supervision, etc. Each person serving as the Presbytery's representative is in turn responsible to it or to a supervisor so designated.

04.00 THE COMMITMENTS UNDERLYING THESE PERSONNEL POLICIES

These personnel policies are based on commitments by the Presbytery and its employees:

— the Presbytery will recognize and affirm the full potential of each employee and develop and support the full range of human resource potential

— employees will devote their interest, skills, and energy to their work and the mission of the Presbytery

These commitments reflect an open partnership in which objectives are shared and in which both employer and employee acknowledge their responsibilities to each other.

04.01 Presbytery Responsibilities

a. to be faithful to its mission

b. to provide opportunity for employee participation in the development and administration of the personnel system, allowing adequate time during regular working hours for such participation

c. to assure that policies and administration of the personnel system are consonant with the rights of employees

d. to provide equal opportunity for all employees in all aspects of every phase of the personnel system

e. to provide adequate and equitable compensation to employees

f. to assist employees in meeting their career goals and objectives in a manner consistent with the interests of Presbytery

g. to conduct regular performance reviews and evaluations for all employees which relate their work objectives to objectives of the Presbytery and which give employees an opportunity to participate in evaluating their own performance

h. to provide equitable benefits and working conditions for the general welfare and wellbeing of all employees

i. to establish and maintain open communication with employees on matters concerning their welfare and the Presbytery's interests

j. to establish and administer a process which provides for the hearing and resolution of complaints and grievances

k. to provide a work place that is safe and secure

04.02 Employee Responsibilities

a. to give their best possible performance in their assigned functions

b. to understand their role and function in the context of the goals of Presbytery

c. to participate in committees or groups as requested in furtherance of the goals of Presbytery

d. to take initiative so that employee opinion is presented to any appropriate forum dealing with the personnel system

e. to make suggestions on the improvement of operations

f. to act in accordance with the Presbytery's rules and regulations

04.03 Common Responsibilities

The partnership style of employer/employee relationships is dependent upon acceptance of the necessity of employer and employee to be responsible to each other in the exercise of their respective responsibilities.

05.00 PRINCIPLES FOR THE DEVELOPMENT AND ADMINISTRATION OF PERSONNEL POLICIES AND PROCESSES

The following principles will guide in the development and administration of all personnel policies and processes:

05.01 Equal Employment Opportunity

Orange Presbytery will establish a process that will enable the development and implementation of employment practices which are administered without discrimination in the areas of race, color, national origin, sex, age, marital status, religious affiliation (except where religious affiliation is determined to be a bona fide occupational qualification) or disability.

05.02 Compensation

The Presbytery will establish a process of compensation wherein the individual employee's compensation is determined on the basis of a system of job evaluation and classification, equitable salary scales, and increments determined in light of economic factors and an annual performance review and evaluation.

05.03 Reimbursement of Expenses

Authorized expenses incurred by employees in the performance of their work assignments are reimbursed through an adequate, uniform, voucher-based system.

05.04 Career Development

The Presbytery will establish a process of career development which will afford employees the opportunity to acquire new skills and knowledge and/or refresh old skills and knowledge, consonant with the need of Presbytery and with their own career goals and objectives. The process of staff development will be an integral part of their annual performance review and evaluation.

05.05 Benefits

Consonant with its goals and financial capacity, the Presbytery will assist in meeting the needs of employees for medical services and insurance, pension coverage, regular vacations, regular and special leaves.

05.06 Quality of Work Life

The Presbytery will establish and sustain a process that assures the employee of equitable working hours, necessary equipment to perform tasks, humane treatment, clean, pleasant, and safe working conditions, etc., to the extent these are feasible within its goals and financial capacity.

05.07 Complaints and Grievances

The Presbytery will establish a process that will insure all employees a fair and equitable opportunity for quick resolution of misunderstandings and complaints that may arise in the administration of the personnel system.

05.08 Communication

Personnel policies and procedures pertinent to their employment will be communicated to all employees, including identification of the offices and persons involved in the administration and oversight of the work of Presbytery.

06.00 PERSONNEL PROCEDURES

Through its Personnel Committee the Council will develop operating procedures for implementation of these policies.

07.00 EMPLOYMENT CATEGORIES, TERMINOLOGY, AND PROCEDURES

07.01 Employer

The Council is the corporate employer for Orange Presbytery.

07.02 Non-exempt and Exempt Categories

The Fair Labor Standards Act provides for non-exempt and exempt positions with respect to overtime.

Persons employed in non-exempt positions shall be paid overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 40 hours per week. Overtime pay is at the rate of one-and-a-half times the regular hourly rate. All overtime work must be approved by the Staff Director in advance. Compensatory time off for hours worked in excess of 40 hours a week is not allowed.

If the normal work week for a non-exempt position is less than 40 hours a week, all hours up to 40 hours a week will be paid at the regular hourly rate. However, compensatory time off, i.e., one hour for each hour worked, may be given in lieu of payment for hours worked in excess of the normal work schedule but no more than 40 hours a week.

Those persons employed in exempt positions are not paid overtime wages for hours worked either in excess of the normal work schedule or 40 hours a week. Such employees are expected to manage their schedules to provide them with a minimum of one day off each week.

07.03 Ministers of the Word

In accordance with federal and state statutes and Church policy, all Ministers of the Word employed by Orange Presbytery are considered self-employed persons engaged in the exercise of their ministry and are not subject to withholding for certain taxes. They are, however, included in all other policies which apply to "employees" except where excluded by federal or state law.

07.04 Staff Director

The Executive Presbyter is elected by Orange Presbytery and serves as Staff Director, responsible to the Council for assignment and continuing supervision of all staff members and their functions.

07.05 Staff Associates

Staff Associates are elected by the Council. When the Staff Associate is a minister, such election will be in accordance with provisions of the Form of Government and procedures of Orange Presbytery.

07.06 Appointed Exempt Staff

All other exempt staff will be appointed by the Staff Director and confirmed by the Council.

07.07 Non-Exempt Staff

Non-exempt staff are employed upon authorization by the Staff Director to fill positions approved by the Council.

08.00 TERM OF OFFICE

Unless an employee is elected for a specific period or has a contract of employment, all employment is of indefinite term.

08.01 Elected Staff

In accordance with the Form of Government, elected staff may be elected for a specific term or for an indefinite period, at the discretion of the Presbytery or Council.

08.02 Appointed Exempt Staff

All other exempt staff will be appointed for indefinite periods unless there are particular programmatic or budgetary reasons for specific term appointments.

08.03 Non-Exempt Staff

Non-exempt staff will serve for an indefinite period unless otherwise determined in advance of employment.

09.00 COMPREHENSIVE PERSONNEL PLAN

The Council will develop a Comprehensive Personnel Plan as the basis for the coordination of personnel planning. This Plan will reflect the programmatic and budgetary decisions of Orange Presbytery. Through the Plan the staff implements the policies, directions and decisions of the Presbytery and/or Council.

09.01 Elements of the Plan

Structure and Organization: An organizational chart will be provided of all the structures of the Presbytery.

Staff Rationale: The organizational structure will reflect the Presbytery's understanding of its mission, responsibility, and opportunity. As the corporate employer for Presbytery, the Council will determine functions and staff positions needed to accomplish the goals, and will provide a statement of purpose or function for each position.

09.02 Position Description

A position description will be developed for each staff position.

10.00 CALLS

10.01 Calls for Ministers of the Word

All staff who are Ministers of the Word will be provided with a written call stating the terms of employment. The process of call will be carried out in compliance with the Form of Government and the procedures of Orange Presbytery.

10.02 Calls for Elected Staff

All elected staff will be provided with a written call stating the terms of employment.

10.03 All Calls

All written calls will contain wording that will indicate the intent of Orange Presbytery to honor the terms of a call except in case of a failure of the employee to perform satisfactorily or in the case of a change in structure or function (in which case adequate notice and assistance in relocation will be given).

11.00 OTHER EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

11.01 Probationary Employment

The first three months of employment of non-exempt personnel are considered a probationary or a trial period, giving the employee and the supervisor an opportunity to evaluate interest and qualifications for the position under actual working conditions.

11.02 Performance Review for Probationary Employees

Prior to regular employment a performance appraisal is prepared and discussed with the employee by her/his supervisor. When all requirements for regular employment are completed satisfactorily, regular employment will begin with the next pay period.

11.03 Nepotism

To affirm and facilitate equal opportunity for all employees and employment candidates, care will be exercised in the employment and assignment of persons who are direct relatives of people in the Presbytery's employ. Such people will not be automatically denied employment nor fair treatment in the full spirit of these policies.

Individuals, however, will not be employed by or through the involvement of direct relatives and they will not be assigned to a position where a direct relative is in a position to influence the employee's salary, promotion or other aspects of personnel practice.

11.04 Sexual Harassment

It is the policy of Orange Presbytery to maintain a work place free of any form of sexual harassment or sexual intimidation from any employee or from non-employee work contacts. Any form of sexual harassment is unacceptable behavior within the work place and is subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

11.05 Privacy

Procedures will be established to guarantee the confidentiality of medical and employment records.

11.06 Honoraria

Ordinarily, Presbytery personnel will not retain honoraria for any services rendered as a part of their normal job function. Any exception to this policy will need the approval of a staff person's immediate supervisor.

12.00 SALARY ADMINISTRATION

12.01 Philosophy and Principles

Orange Presbytery is committed to salary administration which will provide: fair pay for the work performed; incentive for personal achievement and growth; and flexibility to meet changes in organization, functions, positions and personnel over a period of time. Salary levels will be maintained in a manner which results in their being consistent internally, responsive to changes in economic indices and in keeping with the Presbytery's philosophy and objectives.

12.02 Position Evaluation

Positions will be evaluated on the basis of job descriptions, resulting in the establishment of a position classification and salary range for each position.

12.03 Relationship of Salaries to Salary Ranges

Initial placement within a salary range will reflect a judgment of the qualifications and experience of the incumbent relative to the position requirements. An employee will normally start at a salary no higher than the midpoint of the range for the position for which she/he is being employed.

12.04 Adjustment of Salary Ranges

The overall salary administration policy will be reviewed annually by the Personnel Committee. This review will include assessment of economic indicators and changes in the salaries of pastors of congregations and other relevant factors. Based on this review, the Personnel Committee will recommend changes to the Council in salary policy for all employees, including any adjustments in the salary ranges.

12.05 Salary Review and Increments

All individual salaries will be reviewed annually by the Council, and also upon changes in duties or responsibilities which may call for a change in position classification.

Individual salary changes will be made based on performance, on considerations of relative equity, on position in salary range and on appropriate career progression relative to these factors. Length of service alone is not considered a valid reason for an increase.

12.06 Staff Salaries, Ministers of the Word

In accordance with the Form of Government, changes in terms of the call of a staff member who is a Minister of the Word will be submitted to Presbytery for approval.

12.07 Availability of Salary Information

Employees are entitled to information on the salary range within which their positions fall.

12.08 Housing Allowances

Under the Internal Revenue Code, an ordained minister may exclude from her/his gross income for tax purposes, if it is designated in advance, any housing allowance paid as part of the compensation when that allowance is used for —

a. Rent of a home;

b. Purchase of a home, including down payment, legal fees, installment payments, interest, taxes, fire and home liability insurance premiums, repairs, etc.

c. Running expenses of a home other than costs for food and domestic help, such as utilities, house furnishings, etc.

The Internal Revenue Service ruled that an ordained minister may exclude from her/his gross income "only an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities" or can exclude "the amount of compensation used for (1) furnishings, running expenses and real estate taxes to the extent they do not exceed the fair rental value and (2) utilities."

Unless a house is provided, i.e., at the camp or where the Presbytery is in a working relationship with a local church or churches, the housing allowance of the employee will be included in the base salary. The amount designated for housing will reflect a realistic projection of allowance expenses. By October 1 of each year any ordained minister on the staff may request a change in the amount designated for housing based on actual or anticipated expenses. If the total amount designated for housing allowance is not fully used for housing it is the employee's responsibility to include the balance in gross income in computing tax liability.

13.00 CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

13.01 Annual Consultation

Annually, opportunity will be given for all employees to review with their supervisors their career progress, with particular attention to:

a. the employee's skills and knowledge in the light of current assignment

b. potential opportunities for the employee within or beyond the structure of Presbytery

c. specific skills and knowledge which will be required in reaching those opportunities

d. programs and in-service training by which those skills can be gained or refreshed.

This review will be an integral part of the employee's annual review and evaluation.

13.02 Continuing Education for Exempt Staff

Up to two weeks continuing education with pay will be granted to exempt staff within the following guidelines:

a. It is not additional vacation, although it may be taken in conjunction with vacation.

b. It is granted only when the employee and the supervisor have agreed on the appropriate timing of the leave and upon clearly identified goals which are related to the needs of the individual and the Presbytery.

c. A report on learnings in relation to agreed goals will be reviewed with the supervisor within one month after the completion of the leave.

d. Pay in lieu of this leave will not be provided.

e. Provision will be made to cover the employee's work during the absence.

f. Continuing education funds will be available for use according to the terms of call and relevant costs related to the leave.

g. Time and funds for continuing education are cumulative for one additional year.

13.03 Continuing Education for Non-Exempt Staff

Continuing education for non-exempt staff will be implemented according to terms of the contract and goals which are related to the needs of the employee and the Presbytery.

14.00 PERFORMANCE REVIEWS

An annual performance review and evaluation will be conducted for both exempt and non-exempt staff. They will be done honestly and fairly and documented in writing. Performance review of the Executive Presbytery/Staff Director will be conducted by the Personnel Committee. Performance review of Staff Associates will be conducted by the Executive Presbyter and the Personnel Committee. The performance review of all other staff will be carried out by the immediate supervisor, and filed with the Staff Director and Personnel Committee.

At its discretion, the Council may also elect to conduct a comprehensive review and evaluation of exempt staff at end of term or a particular anniversary of employment.

15.00 SEPARATION PRACTICES

The term "separation" refers to any and all terminations of the relationship between an employee, exempt or non-exempt, and the Presbytery.

15.01 Voluntary Resignation

A voluntary choice of separation freely made by the employee may take place after one month's written notice for exempt employees or two weeks written notice for non-exempt employees. All such employees will receive pay for accrued vacation. Vacation pay is forfeited if notice is not given.

15.02 Termination Without Prejudice

An employee's employment may be terminated by the Presbytery for reasons other than those enumerated under Dismissal for Cause in paragraph 15.03 below. Termination without prejudice will be upon the recommendation of the supervisor, with the written approval of the Staff Director and concurrence of the Council.

Employees terminated without prejudice will be entitled to notice, allowances, and out placement assistance as outlined and limited in paragraphs 15.05b and 15.05c below.

15.03 Dismissal for Cause

Dismissal for cause may take place by written notice from the Staff Director or the person acting on his/her behalf, in accordance with Presbytery procedures, giving specific reasons for termination. Such action requires the concurrence of Council.

Notice must be given or pay in lieu of notice of one month for exempt employees or two weeks for non-exempt employees. Those who are dismissed will receive the cash equivalent of their unused earned vacation.

The reasons for dismissal for cause shall include but not be limited to:

— unsatisfactory performance

— insubordination in the line of assigned duties

— neglect in the care and use of Orange Presbytery property and funds — repeated, unexcused absence and/or repeated absences or tardiness

— illegal, dishonest or unethical conduct

— repeated failure or refusal to observe Presbytery policies

Discharge of an employee is always considered to be an action of last resort taken after remedial measures have proved ineffective or when the employee's conduct is such as to preclude further employment. Written documentation is required prior to recommendation for dismissal unless immediate dismissal is considered to be necessary for the safety of persons or property. Dismissal is subject to the complaint procedure as outlined in these policy guidelines.

15.04 Suspension

If unacceptable behavior requires absence from the work place, the supervisor of that employee may suspend the employee, pending verification and evaluation of the circumstances. Such suspension shall be with concurrence of the Staff Director. Suspended employees will receive pay during the investigative process.

The employee has the right to use the complaint procedure as outlined in these policy guidelines.

15.05 Reduction of Force

15.05a Reduction of Regular Staff

If Orange Presbytery, because of a fundamental change in long-range objectives, organizational changes, or a serious change in financial outlook is required to make a reduction in work force, the decisions and procedures by which staff members will be released will be fairly and consistently applied. Reduction of force will be accomplished in a manner that preserves overall organizational effectiveness.

If a position or similar position calling for similar qualifications is reinstated within a period of two years, the individual who was previously employed in the position will be given first opportunity for employment in that position.

15.05b Outplacement Assistance (Reduction of Force or Termination Without Prejudice

Each terminated employee will be offered personal assistance, career planning guidance, and help in locating employment elsewhere.

15.05c Schedule of Allowance (Reduction of Force or Termination Without Prejudice

Three months minimum notice will be given to exempt employees and one month minimum notice will be given to non-exempt employees. Pay may be given in lieu of notice at the discretion of the Council.

If during the notice period the employee secures employment elsewhere, the obligations of the Presbytery for the remainder of the notice period are forfeited.

No additional vacation entitlement will accrue during the severance period.

15.06 Termination of Ministers of the Word

All conditions for separation shall be compatible with the provisions of the Form of Government and the Rules of Discipline of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

15.07 Death in Service

In the event of the death of a member of the staff, the salary of that person will be continued for four weeks from the date on which death occurs, payable to the beneficiary.

Death benefits are also provided through the pension and benefits plans of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

16.00 COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Orange Presbytery desires to maintain with its staff good working relationships which affirm the importance of each individual and her/his contribution to the work being done, to minimize misunderstandings, and to seek resolution of differences as quickly as possible.

Employees are encouraged to take initiative in seeking answers to their questions or solutions to their work-related problems through discussion with their supervisors. In doing so, they are assured by these policies of freedom from reprisal. Supervisors are expected to maintain an open door to employees responsible to them, to encourage communication, and to provide assistance in dealing with their concerns or complaints.

16.01 Preliminary Complaint Procedure

16.01a Discussion with Supervisor

a. Discuss the question or concern with the immediate supervisor as soon as it arises.

b. When the problem involves matters over which the supervisor has no direct responsibility or control, the supervisor will assist the employee in discovering the proper channel for addressing the concern.

c. Where the matter is such that the employee prefers not to discuss it initially with the supervisor, other channels may be used as determined in policies set forth by the Personnel Committee.

16.01b Review by the Staff Director

In the event that a satisfactory resolution has not been reached, the employee may request the Staff Director to study the matter and discover a solution.

16.02 Personnel Grievance Committee

If the Preliminary Complaint Procedure fails to provide an acceptable remedy, the employee may file a written complaint with the Personnel Committee of Council serving as a Grievance Committee. This procedure also applies to a complaint against the Staff Director, if discussion with that person has not provided an acceptable remedy.

16.03 Ministers of the Word

All procedures which involve Ministers of the Word will be compatible with the Rules of Discipline of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

17.00 BENEFITS

17.01 Social Security

The personnel of Orange Presbytery are covered by Social Security. The employees' share of the tax is withheld from the wages of staff who are not Ministers of the Word. Staff who are Ministers of the Word are considered self-employed and Social Security taxes are not withheld nor paid for them.

17.02 Pension

All eligible employees who have completed a probationary period (if required) are enrolled in the pension plan of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) for which full dues are paid by the Presbytery.

In the first year of employment vacation time will be prorated depending on the month in which employment took place. In the last year of employment, vacation time will accrue monthly from January 1 until date of termination.

Exempt employees are entitled to one month (twenty-two working days) vacation per year.

Non-exempt employees are entitled to an annual paid vacation computed on January 1 of each year with ten days vacation granted for one year of credited service and with one day added for each additional year of service up to a total of fifteen days.

Because employees are encouraged to take their full vacation each year, it is non-cumulative.

17.05 Holidays

The holidays for employees of Orange Presbytery are:

New Year's Day
Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Birthday
Easter Monday
Independence Day
Labor Day
Thanksgiving Day
Day After Thanksgiving

17.06 Sick Leave

Exempt staff will receive full salary until disability insurance begins, but ordinarily no longer than ninety days.

Non-exempt staff will receive ten working days of sick leave each calendar year, cumulative up to ninety days to be used in case of illness. Sick leave entitlement during the first year of employment will be prorated according to length of employment. The ten days of additional sick leave will be credited on January 1 of each successive year of employment.

At the time of termination of employment (either voluntary or involuntary) an employee shall have no claim for pay in lieu of unused sick leave.

e. In case of death in the immediate family (spouse, child, parent, parent-in-law, brother, sister, grandparent), the employee will receive full pay for absence from the day of death up to and including the day after burial. This leave should not exceed four working days. Time lost to attend a funeral locally may be counted as personal or family emergency leave to be arranged in consultation with the employee's supervisor.

f. Maternity leave is provided for up to one month with pay. Accumulated sick leave will be applied.

g. Adequate time off for voting where election hours and work schedules would work a hardship on employees.

The employee will be expected to state his/her intention in writing with regard to returning to work after the Leave of Absence.

6. Adopted the following policy statement:

Policy of Orange Presbytery Regarding Fund Raising by Church-Related Institutions

Church-Related Institutions are:

1. those whose mission a governing body has affirmed by formal action;

2. ordinarily confined to educational institutions, camps/conference centers, homes for children/aged, and institutions providing social services.

Within this definition, the term "church-related institutions" does not necessarily mean that a governing body of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) exercises any operational control.

Chapter 9 Organizations are specifically excluded from this definition of "church-related institutions."

The Council is responsible for identifying such "church-related institutions" and recommending appropriate action to the Presbytery.

Policy

1. The Presbytery will determine the period of time during which solicitation is authorized.

2. These institutions may solicit funds in an organized and systematic way:
   a. from individual Presbyterians with or without governing body authorization
   b. from one congregation only after securing permission of the Session
   c. from more than one congregation only after securing the approval first of the Presbytery and then the Sessions involved.

3. When the request comes from an institution whose mission has been affirmed by formal action of the General Assembly or the Synod of North Carolina, approval ordinarily will be granted by the General Assembly and/or the Synod prior to being considered by the Presbytery.

7. Voted for the Nominating Committee members to be adjusted as follows for the purpose of completing work it has started: Class of 1985 to become Class of 1986, Class of 1986 to become Class of 1987, and Class of 1987 to become Class of 1988.

8. Acknowledged the year end retirement of Joyce Bauer by expressing its profound appreciation for her 20 years service to the former Granville and present Orange Presbyteries. She was presented with gifts from the Presbytery. Charles Williams prayed the prayer of thanksgiving.

UPON THE RETIREMENT

JOYCE PHILLIPS BAUER

Following twenty years of service to Orange Presbytery and the former Granville Presbytery, Joyce P. Bauer will retire effective March 31, 1986. She was employed in 1966 as secretary, bookkeeper, and office manager for Granville Presbytery. Following merger of Orange and Granville Presbyteries, Joyce was elected as Stated Clerk-Treasurer of the newly formed Orange Presbytery; she now serves as Staff Associate-Treasurer.

During her years of service to the Presbytery, Joyce also gave unstintingly of her time to the Synod and General Assembly. She served as chairperson of Church Employed Women of the General Assembly and on the Committee on Assembly's Operations among other responsibilities. Joyce gave (and continues to give) significant leadership to Presbyterian Church Administrators Association and Administrative Personnel Association. It is of historic note that Joyce put the constitutional motion on the floor of the PCUS General Assembly meeting in Atlanta (1983), enabling reunion to take place with the UPCUSA. This was done in her capacity as chairperson of the Polity Standing Committee at that Assembly.

A native of Nashville, Tennessee, Joyce attended Peabody College and Ward-Belmont College in that city and Tennessee Tech in Cookeville. While in Tennessee, she held such positions as Office Manager for the Chamber of Commerce and Organizer of the United Givers Fund in Cookeville.

Joyce is married to John Massengill and they hope to spend more time with their children and grandchildren and do more traveling. She has two sons, Michael and Ron, who live in Raleigh.

The Report of the Council was adopted as a whole.

Since the last stated meeting of Orange Presbytery, October 22, 1985, the Council has met four times, twice in 1985, November 5 and December 3 and twice in 1986 January 2 and February 4. The following actions are reported to the governing body as information:

1. On recommendation of the Personnel Committee approved:

   A. That the report of the Review and Evaluation Committee for Paul Ransford be adopted, including the following recommendations:
      1. That Paul Ransford be commended with enthusiasm for his diligence and effectiveness in his position as Staff Associate for Camps and Conferences.
      2. That the Call to Paul Ransford be renewed.
      3. That the Call to Paul Ransford be made a non-term call.

   B. That, as he assumes the position of Staff Associate for Finances/Treasurer, the salary of Charles Noonan be increased by $5,000.

NOTE: This is not a new position. Prior to assuming the position of bookkeeper, one-half of Marjorie O'Briant's time is defined as providing secretarial services for the Administrative Services Work Unit.

G. That, upon recommendation of the Camps Work Unit, the compensation for Greg and Karen Bryan be increased by $3,452, which carries with it the understanding that Karen's employment will be full-time. (She is employed part-time at the present.)

2. Voted to accept with regret the resignation of Earl Guss, nominee for Chair of the Council. That the Council recommend to the Nominating Committee the nomination of Wayne Campbell to complete the term of Earl Guss; and that pending his election to fill this vacancy by the Presbytery at its February meeting, Wayne be elected Chair of the Council for 1986. (He had been nominated to serve as Vice Chair.)

4. Elected N. N. Fleming to serve as Vice Chair of Council.

5. Elected Rollin Steele as Member-at-Large of the Executive Committee.

Voted that Council call special meetings of the districts before the February meeting of the Presbytery for the purpose of discussing the Principles of Agreement (To Guide Boundary and Mission Plans in North Carolina), that copies of the document be sent to each Session, and that members of the Boundaries Committee be involved in the meetings.

9. Voted that page 6, Orange Presbytery Manual, Part III, be amended to read: "Singles Ministry, which has nine at-large members and a chairperson appointed by the work unit. The primary purpose of this committee is to integrate singles into the whole body of the church; secondarily, the committee may utilize education and enrichment events to facilitate this process."

10. The Council met with members of the Synod Boundaries Committee and reviewed the process of development of the "Articles of Agreement for the Formation of the New Synod for the Synods of North Carolina, the Virginias, and the Piedmont." Voted that the Council Chair appoint a committee to draft a written response to these articles of agreement which will be brought to the next meeting of the Council.

The above criteria will guide the committee in selecting nominees from the districts. Additional nominations may be made on the floor of Presbytery . . . (rest remains unchanged). The representative from each district on the Nominating Committee will present to the Executive Committee three names from which one name will be presented for nomination to membership on the Nominating Committee."

5. Approved the following Overture in regard to the Proposed Mission Design: (See Report of the Bills and Overtures Committee.)

OVERTURE

Whereas the presbyteries of our General Assembly have participated with enthusiasm in "Today into Tomorrow: A Year of Consultation;" and
Whereas there is little apparent relationship between the findings of the Year of Consultation and the Proposed Mission Design; and
Whereas the very timing of the presentation of the Proposed Mission Design to the presbyteries for study and comment during the seasons of Advent and Christmas precluded the broadest possible participation in the consideration of the Design; and
Whereas some of the lower governing bodies did not receive copies of the Proposed Mission Design until well into the Christmas season due to postal delays and yet response was required by January 10, 1986; and
Whereas it appears from a reading of 5.4 of the Articles of Agreement that the Mission Design Committee exceeded its constitutional authority by proposing an organizational design which centralizes the authority of the church in the operation of the General Assembly's Council;
Be it therefore resolved: That the Presbytery of Orange, meeting this 25th day of February 1986 does respectfully overture the One-hundred and ninety-eighth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) to order the delay of any further action to implement the Proposed Mission Design;
And be it therefore resolved: That during the delay the Mission Design Committee be instructed to compose a plan for organization of the work of the Church at the General Assembly level which will strengthen the execution of the mission of the church at levels which are closest possible to the local congregations.

6. Approved that a Standing Committee of five persons be appointed by the Moderator to oversee recommended changes to the Book of Order and their presentation to Presbytery. These persons are: Haywood Holderness, Chair, Carl Rush, John Stewart, Martha Stevenson and Elaine Buie.

7. Approved the Principles of Agreement (To Guide Boundary and Mission Plans in North Carolina) as follows:

PRINCIPLES OF AGREEMENT
(To Guide Boundary and Mission Plans in North Carolina)

PREAMBLE

These Principles of Agreement have been developed under, and are adopted within, the mutual discipline of the ten Presbyteries within the State of North Carolina, namely, the Presbyteries of Albemarle, Asheville, Cape Fear, Catawba, Concord, Fayetteville, Mecklenburg, Orange, Wilmington and Yadkin. These Principles are intended to serve as part of a written covenant i two specific ways: as a guide for the negotiation of new Presbytery boundarie within the State of North Carolina; and, as a guide for shaping the life, missio and witness of the emerging new Presbyteries.

These Principles seek to express the particular concerns of the individua Presbyteries, those concerns held in common by all the Presbyteries togethe and the concerns unique to the black Presbyteries in North Carolina.

These Principles also seek to reflect the interests and concerns of th Presbyteries in such a way as to be clearly grounded in Scripture, in histor and in the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church (USA). They see to be expressive of the integrity of our Church, and to bring that integrity t bear on the matter of boundaries.

PRINCIPLE ONE

We will respect our mutual histories.

The history of Presbyterians in the State of North Carolina is an impressiv record. Our lives have been blessed in a wide variety of ways through thos years. There have also been parts of that history of which we cannot be prou Our history has been a mixture of our finite human sinfulness, and of God empowering work among us. Taken all together, that record has a richne and a diversity which are a profound resource available to us today. One o our most crucial tasks in shaping this part of the reunited Church is to mak faithful use of that history. We must preserve and enhance its richness. W need to honor and build upon its integrity. We must continue to learn from i negative aspects. We need to acknowledge and employ the gift of its diversit indeed to risk celebrating that diversity in the present, for we are one in Chri Jesus our Lord.

Until a specific plan for the reunion of these ten Presbyteries is mutual developed, accepted and implemented, each of the constituent governin bodies (and the Catawba Unit) shall remain in its presently constituted form and shall continue to do its work under all the appropriate provisions of th Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (USA). Each body shall be cogniza of the Articles of Agreement, of "A Guide for Presbyteries Engaging i Boundary Conversations," and of the history of Presbyterianism in Nort Carolina.

PRINCIPLE TWO

We will be guided by the principle that the boundaries of all Presbyteries will be changed.

The Articles of Agreement (7.4) state that "On the principle that geographically related area makes possible greater fellowship and ease in th conduct of the business of a governing body" it is important that "governin bodies be of sufficient strength and geographical proximity to enhance th

otal mission of the Church," and that "Care must be taken to protect the ights and privileges of members of each of the uniting governing bodies so hat they may exercise the responsibilities of leadership in the new governing odies."

We affirm that all boundary changes must make possible that fellowship, trength and geographical proximity, and must give evidence of pluralism, nclusiveness and diversity within the new boundaries. Our task is to strike an ppropriate balance among those considerations, so that the mission of the vhole Church is strengthened.

PRINCIPLE THREE

We will be guided by the principle of adopting new names.

Each of the new Presbyteries, when constituted, will be responsible for hoosing its new name. The nature of an entity is suggested by its name. The ame and the entity itself are inseparable. The identity of a people is indicated n their name. The question of names is not to be taken lightly, for the name is xpressive of the quest of a people; it can transmit a sense of a people's history nd purpose.

The Presbyteries in our area carry different names, our parallel histories otwithstanding. For a variety of reasons — theological, psychological, cclesiological — the creation of new governing bodies calls for new names ltogether. It is important in order that the mere fact of minority and majority ot become a matter of political power and influence alone, nor a matter of lefensively protecting traditions.

PRINCIPLE FOUR

We will provide and maintain support for the small church.

The Presbyterian Church in the State of North Carolina is predominantly a hurch of small congregations. The gift of the small church is its continuing aithful service to a community of people, offering Christian worship, ducation and programs of mission outreach — often far beyond its numerical trength. The small church is often the only Presbyterian witness in a given ocale or area. Given the small church's significant role in nurturing and raining leaders, their rich and varied histories, their lean structures, their ledicated leaders and faithful Ministers of the Word, these churches must ontinue to be the recipients of regular attention by means of ncouragement, financial aid, and the ready availability of Presbytery staff and esources.

More effort needs to be given to understanding the needs, struggles and spirations of the small church. An equitable funding system must be put in lace in order to maintain financial support for the small churches, and to trengthen and enhance their unique gifts and witness. This system should oster the small churches' growth toward greater stewardship responsibilities.

PRINCIPLE FIVE

We will honor the principle of inclusiveness.

The Presbyteries shall be structured, in accordance with the Book of Order, with sufficient officers, committees and/or divisions to do mission in orderly and effective ways. These structures shall have membership inclusive of clergymen, clergywomen, laymen, laywomen, black and other ethnic minority persons. In conjunction with the principles of inclusiveness and participation, the council and all standing or permanent committees shall be on rotary system.

PRINCIPLE SIX

We will honor the principle of inclusiveness in employment by Presbyteries.

The staffing of Presbyteries shall be clearly informed by the Book of Order (G-4.0400 - 4.0403), which addresses the broad concerns of inclusiveness, pluralism and diversity within the Church, including governing body staffing. We affirm the principle of equal opportunity, which would safeguard blacks from any discriminatory outlook or practice which works to exclude blacks, either systematically or unintentionally.

We affirm the principle that employment at the Presbytery level, in all categories of skill and responsibility, shall include black/racial ethnic personnel. The new Presbyteries shall implement the principles of inclusiveness and participation in the employment of black persons, women and other minorities in positions of executive leadership, strategy development, office management, secretarial work, program and resource development.

PRINCIPLE SEVEN

We will continue to support our Presbyterian institutions.

Presbyterian educational institutions have long served the church by preparing women and men for leadership. We therefore affirm our intention to support and be advocates, through appropriate governing bodies, for these educational institutions, especially racial/ethnic colleges.

Through the years other institutions have provided a wide range of valuable services, including counseling, child care and homes for the aged. We affirm our continuing support and advocacy for them in appropriate ways.

PRINCIPLE EIGHT

We will seek to adhere to the following timeline for action.

These Principles of Agreement, adopted by the ten North Carolina Presbytery Boundary Committees in December 1985, are recommended for approval by the ten North Carolina Presbyteries at their January/February 1986 meetings.

When these Principles of Agreement have been adopted by the ten Presbyteries, the ten Presbytery Boundary Committees working together will begin immediately to devise a process by which a boundary and mission plan for new Presbyteries will be developed.

It is expected that the final plan will be presented to the Fall 1986 meetings of the Presbyteries for approval, with appropriate necessary action from Synods and the General Assembly Special Committee on Boundaries. The final step would then be the writing of overtures to be presented to the General Assembly in 1987, with the effective date for constituting the new Presbyteries being January 1, 1988.

REPORT OF CAPITAL FUNDS & MISSION DEVELOPMENT CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

Charles Williams, Chairman, presented the following report:

Our Orange Aid Campaign, being conducted jointly with Presbyterian omes, Inc., of the Synod of North Carolina, has the following goals:

esbyterian Homes (High Point, White Gate)	$ 2,400,000
ew Church Development (7 new churches)	1,600,000
enovations: Presbyterian Point and Camps New Hope	764,000
ew Adult Conference Center (New Hope)	886,000
. C. Correctional Center After Care	75,000
timated Capital Fund Expenses	175,000
	$ 5,900,000

The Executive Committee of the Campaign (Mr. Red Wilson, Chairman) timates that the campaign may top out at about $4,000,000 ($1,900,000 less an the goal). Its projection of funds which should be available for esbytery's portion of the campaign is $1,600,000. Accordingly, the Executive ommittee requested the Capital Funds & Mission Development Committee determine how these funds may be allocated and to make commendations to Presbytery.

Our committee convened Monday, December 30, 1985 with presentatives of the campaign causes present. Following a discussion of the mpaign progress and of estimated funding, representatives were invited to fer recommendations for reducing funding and thereby to share in the ecision-making process.

Based on these hearings and discussions, our Committee offers the llowing recommendations for allocations of campaign funds:

. That $1,000,000 be allocated for new church development.
2. Camp Renovations for the two camps: $498,930
   A. Presbyterian Point: $252,180
   B. Camp New Hope: $246,750
3. That $100,000 be allocated for development of a modified Adult Center at Camp New Hope.
4. That $10,000 be allocated for after care services at the N.C. Correctional Center for Women, the income from which is to be administered by Orange Presbytery.
5. That income from the Orange Aid Campaign above these allocations be divided among these causes on a prorata basis.

"The administration of mission should be performed by the governing body nearest the congregation what can most effectively and efficiently accomplish it."

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

The Report of the Resolutions Committee was adopted as follows:

As we made our pilgrimage to downtown Durham this morning, we were grateful to find, in the midst of the maze of one-way streets, a place of welcome and fellowship.

We rejoice with the congregation of First Presbyterian Church in their 25 year old commitment to remain downtown and minister to the difficult problems of the inner city. As we recommitted ourselves today to the consummation of the reunion of Presbyterians in North Carolina, in spite of the changes and unknowns ahead, it is fitting that we do it as guests of this congregation, which has demonstrated its readiness to respond to God's call to venture into new and difficult situations.

Therefore, be it resolved that we, the Presbytery of Orange, express our thanks to the staff, the Session, the Women of the Church, and the members of the First Presbyterian Church for their work in hosting us today, and that we ask God's blessing as they continue their ministry in this place.

0. The Stated Clerk had received a Resolution from the West Raleigh Presbyterian Church. This was referred to the Resolutions Committee as follows:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the agricultural, textile, and furniture industries have traditionally provided places of employment and contributed to the quality of life enjoyed by so many North Carolinians;

WHEREAS, these traditional industries are undergoing massive adjustments and economic stress due to imports, obsolescence, depressed prices, and high input costs;

WHEREAS, some of North Carolina's newer corporate citizens are caught up in similar economic upheavals for a variety of reasons;

WHEREAS, farm families, the entrepreneurs who formed the fabric of early American society, are also being confronted with the loss of family enterprises that provide their livelihood;

WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Church in Orange Presbytery and throughout North Carolina has a constituency representative and appreciative of the work ethic and independency associated with full employment and the utilization of job skills and human industriousness; and

WHEREAS, the emotional stress associated with economic losses often reaches crisis stages for the families involved, THEREFORE, Be it resolved that the April 22, 1986, Stated Meeting of Orange Presbytery voices its empathy for the individuals and families who are caught up in the present economic upheaval.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, as farm families and industries bend and adjust to these difficult times, that we affirm our understanding that they are victims of economic change and upheaval and worthy of our deep compassion, concern and support.

TO THAT END, we encourage congregations and agencies to give the extra pastoral care and concern of open positive ministry to families who are experiencing emotional strain and stress. Especially let our hearts reach out to those throughout our rural and urban communities as they endure the current crisis.

FURTHER, that this resolution be transmitted to the Synod of North Carolina so that it may be shared with our brothers and sisters in the larger region.

Approved Unanimously by the Session of West Raleigh Presbyterian Church
March 23, 1986

INTRODUCTION OF GUEST

Wadah Antoun, former Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Syria and Lebanon, was introduced to the governing body and brought greetings from his country.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Joe Harvard spoke on the 13th Annual Urban Consultations to be held in Durham on April 24-26 at First Church. A large crowd is expected to attend from all over the United States.

APPOINTMENT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

The Moderator appointed the Standing Committee as follows:
Resolutions: Paul Woodall, Chairman, Alice Thomas and J. T. Donnell

REPORT OF THE PEACEMAKING COMMITTEE

Carlisle Harvard, Chairman of Presbytery's Peacemaking Committee, spoke to the governing body on the work of the committee and urged each church to adopt the "Commitment to Peacemaking" if it has not done so. Jerry McCann, pastor of the St. Paul's Church in Greensboro, spoke on his experiences in Nicaragua.

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL

Wayne Campbell, Chairman of the Council, gave the report as follows:

Since the last stated meeting of Orange Presbytery the Council has met twice, March 4 and April 1. The following actions of the Council are reported to the governing body as information:

1. Adopted the following recommendation of the Peacemaking Committee: The Peacemaking Committee of Orange Presbytery recommends that funds contributed by churches for peacemaking (peacemaking offering is ordinarily taken on World Communion Sunday — first Sunday in October) be used to further educate the people of Orange Presbytery through (1) Workshops and retreats held within the bounds of Orange Presbytery, (2) Scholarships for National Peacemaking Conferences and (3) Scholarships for international Peacemaking Seminars such as New Eyes (Central America April 1987), Bridge Building between Christians in the U.S. and Soviet Union (June 1986).
2. Per the Synod Council's request in reference to the Articles of Agreement, the Council of Orange Presbytery offered the following response:

REPRESENTATION
It is the opinion of the Council of Orange Presbytery that the new synod ought to consist of a configuration which would offer the broadest possible grassroots representation. We affirm a non-delegated synod, which would include all clergy and commissioners from all congregations as desirable. We recognize that such a non-delegated synod would require a constitutional amendment.

The proposed "super synod" works against a broad based representation and we are opposed to such a resolution of synod boundaries. Our preference would be a two-state configuration, consisting of North Carolina and Virginia or a Synod of the Carolinas. Whatever the final decision, the widest possible base of representation is desirable.

MISSION DESIGN

The Council of Orange Presbytery affirmed the following as important to the new mission design:

(1) Institutions (colleges and seminaries)
(2) Campus ministry
(3) Presbyterian Homes (retirement)
(4) Church extension (expertise in assisting presbyteries in new church development)
(5) Ecumenical commitment (Council of Churches)
(6) Counseling centers
(7) Programs which would offer reconciliation between races, including support for multi-racial congregations
(8) Chaplaincies (prisons and hospitals)
(9) Leadership development and support

We also believe

- Synod should provide a partnership role which will network presbyteries within its bounds.

- The funding for the mission of the synod should be in consultation with its presbyteries.

- The staffing should follow the mission design.

The Council approved the following recommendations:

1. Approved the proposal of the committee convened by John Causey to establish guidelines for The Loy Scholarship Fund which follows — to establish a "Scholarship Selection Committee" consisting of three (3) persons with the chairpersons of the Candidates' Committee and the Professional Development Committee serving as ex-officio members, with the manual being amended accordingly; and to accept the statement in regard to The Loy Scholarship Fund, the letter from the Selection Committee, and the application form as documents to be used by the Committee.

2. Approved the request of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, Durham, to increase its loan from $600,000 to $800,000 for construction of a sanctuary pending approval of its congregation.

3. Approved the request of Clyde Robinson, on behalf of the United Ministries in Education and Presbyterian Ministries in Education, for permission to observe the Lord's Supper during a meeting in August at Duke University.

4. Approved that the "EXTENSION OF SUBLEASE" proposed by the Administrative Services Work Unit for the present office facilities be recommended to the Presbytery for execution.

   Rent for said premises to be paid by Orange Presbytery to Synod shall be paid monthly:
   a. Beginning January 1, 1985, through December, 1987, $725.00 per month;
   b. Beginning January 1, 1988, through December, 1989, $825.00 per month;
   c. Beginning January 1, 1990, through December, 1992, $925.00 per month.

   Except as expressly modified with respect to the term of said Sublease and the rent to be paid, all of the other terms of the Sublease Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

5. Approved that the Trustees of Orange Presbytery in consultation with the Church Development Work Unit be authorized to encumber the property described in Deed Book 3324, page 891, in the office of the register of deeds for Wake County, North Carolina, formerly Lot 1 of the A. E. Ferguson Estate consisting of 4.6637 acres on which said property is located in northwest Raleigh adjoining State Road 1829. The funds are to be applied to the construction of a building for the North Raleigh Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, N.C.

6. Approved that Orange Presbytery authorize its Trustees to execute such instruments as the Trustees deem advisable to sell the property at 6412 Lakeway Drive, Raleigh, N.C. owned by Wilson Gunn and Orange Presbytery for the sum of $105,500. The equity to be divided according to the agreement entered into by Mr. Gunn and Orange Presbytery at its meeting July 26-27, 1982 and recorded in the minutes of that meeting.

7. Motion passed that the Presbytery go on record in support of Council's response to the Synod's Boundaries. (See item #2 of Council's report — for information.)

The report of the Council was adopted as amended and as a whole.

The Council of Orange Presbytery
Durham, North Carolina

We have examined the balance sheets of the Current Funds, Endowment and Similar Funds and Property, Plant and Equipment Funds of Orange Presbytery as of December 31, 1985 and 1984, and the related statements of changes in fund balances and Unrestricted Current Funds revenues and expenditures for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of the Current Funds, Endowment and Similar Funds and Property, Plant and Equipment Funds of Orange Presbytery as of December 31, 1985 and 1984, and the changes in fund balances and the Unrestricted Current Funds revenues and expenditures for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

NOTE A--SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting Basis: The financial statements of Orange Presbytery have been prepared on the accrual basis except for depreciation accounting as explained below. The statements of Unrestricted Current Funds revenues and expenditures are statements of financial activities of Current Funds related to the years ended December 31, 1985 and 1984. They do not purport to present the results of operations or the net income for the years then ended.

The Presbytery maintains its books under the principles and practices of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds that are in accordance with activities, objectives, and restrictions specified by donors, sources outside the Presbytery, or by direction of the Board of Trustees or Council.

In accordance with bookkeeping practices recommended by the Presbyterian Church (USA), of which Orange Presbytery is a member, the Presbytery holds open cash receipts and disbursements records for approxi- mately two weeks after the end of the year in order to record year end transactions with member churches and the General Assembly.

Revenues: Benevolence and per capita tax revenues are contributions made by the member churches of Orange Presbytery. Due to the voluntary nature of these contributions, they are recognized as revenues when they are received, except contributions received in advance, which are deferred.

All gains and losses arising from the sale or other disposition of investments and other noncash assets are accounted for in the fund that owned such assets.

Revenues derived from investments are accounted for in the fund owning such investments, except that revenues derived from investments of Endowment and Similar Funds are accounted for in the fund to which they are restricted or, if unrestricted, in Current Funds.

Restricted gifts, grants, appropriations, and other restricted resources are accounted for in the appropriate restricted funds. Such funds are then reported as revenues and expenditures of the Current Funds when expended.

Inventories: Inventories of paper and printing supplies held for resale to member churches are priced at the lower of cost or market on a first-in, first-out (FIFO) basis.

Property, Plant and Equipment: Amounts expended from Current Funds to acquire property, plant and equipment are accounted for as expenditures of Current Funds. Such expenditures are then recorded as additions to the Property, Plant and Equipment Funds in the statements of changes in fund balances.

In accordance with practices followed by similar organizations, the Presbytery does not provide for the depreciation of fixed assets.

NOTE B--NOTES PAYABLE

Notes payable of the Current Funds consist of the following:

NOTE D--ENDOWMENT AND SIMILAR FUNDS AND RESTRICTED CURRENT FUNDS

Endowment Funds of Orange Presbytery are subject to the restrictions of gift instruments requiring that in most cases the principal be invested and the income only be utilized as follows:

TOTAL	$32,259	$26,294	$30,899	$30,480

NOTE D--ENDOWMENT AND SIMILAR FUNDS AND RESTRICTED CURRENT FUNDS--Continued

During 1982, Orange Presbytery created the Orange Presbytery Foundation, Inc., a charitable and religious organization established to further the mission of Orange Presbytery. The Presbytery appoints all board members to serve on the Foundation's Board of Trustees. In 1984, Orange Presbytery transferred all of the Endowment Funds, plus the related interest income held in the Current Restricted Funds, to the Orange Presbytery Foundation, Inc. The Foundation is under the direct control of Orange Presbytery, therefore the entities are consolidated in the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE E--CAPITAL FUNDS

In 1984, Orange Presbytery approved a capital funds campaign to raise $4.5 million in coordination with Presbyterian Homes Inc. The Presbytery's proceeds of $2.1 million will be used to finance the development of seven new churches and to make improvements to Camp New Hope, Presbyterian Point and the conference center. A capital fund was established to account for the receipts and disbursements associated with this campaign. This fund is classified as a current restricted fund in the financial statements. The first $175,000 of excess revenues are to pay Orange Presbytery's expenses associated with the campaign; all additional excess revenues will be used for designated purposes.

NOTE F--PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT FUNDS

Property, plant and equipment are stated partially at estimated values due to the fact that either the properties were donated or cost was not available prior to 1974. The estimated values are based on a combination of insurance values, appraisals, and fair market values as established primarily in 1974. Additions to the fund since January 1, 1974 are recorded at cost or fair market value, if donated.

In addition to the properties recorded in this fund, the Trustees hold title to various churches in Orange Presbytery. This arrangement is for canonical purposes rather than for actual utilization; therefore, the properties are not included in the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE G--LEASES

Orange Presbytery rents its office building from the Synod of North Carolina. The lease on this building expired in 1983 and was renewed in April 1986, retroactive to January 1985, with monthly payments on the building of $725. Recorded lease expense for this and other operating leases (which have expired or are within one year of expiration) totalled $9,212 in 1985.

NOTE H--RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During 1982, the Presbytery jointly purchased a house and lot with a member of the Executive Committee of the Presbytery. The Presbytery paid $31,107 and cosigned a mortgage note for $45,000. The remaining balance at December 31, 1985 was approximately $44,570. The mortgage note is included in the contingent liability disclosed in Note B.

WHEREAS, the experience of the people of Orange Presbytery in the presbytery partnership with the General Assembly Mission Board (GAMB) and the Presbyterian Community of Zaire (CPZa) in establishing the Christian Health Center (C.C.S.) in Mbujimayi have resulted in new understandings of our oneness in Christ and willingness to heed Christ's command 'Feed My Sheep" and

WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Church in Zaire has been able to extend its ministry in Mbujimayi and improve the quality of life for many people in the area, and

WHEREAS, God has also been at work in the same way as hunger gifts have been used to minister to the hungry in our midst, and

WHEREAS, ten years of effective partnership and ministry has equipped us for continued ministry, and

WHEREAS, the Hunger Committee of Orange Presbytery has carefully and prayerfully evaluated past experiences, and worked closely with the Division of International Missions (DIM) and Presbyterian Hunger Program (PHP) to determine appropriate directions for a continued hunger ministry,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Hunger Committee recommends to Orange Presbytery (or its successors) through the Special Ministries Work Unit and the Council the adoption of the following plan for Orange Presbytery's Hunger Ministry: 1987-1991.

1. Acknowledging the needs of Orange Presbytery (or its successors) for

   a. Direct involvement in a specific mission partnership through a meaningful relationship with sister churches in order to develop a deeper commitment to the body of Christ around the world,

   b. Sensitivity to the inter-relatedness of hunger, peace, and economic justice from a Christian perspective,

   c. Person-to-person relationships and the sharing of gifts and insights with those of other cultures.

   d. Spriritual growth in our presbytery through mutual sharing of our common faith with Christians of other cultures.

   e. Opportunities to share ten years experience in developing and implementing a hunger partnership, and

2. Being cognizant of the need to complete our commitment to the partnership with CPZa and GAMB in the Christian Health Center in Mbujimayi in such a way that the church and health center can achieve maximum self-sufficiency, and

3. Recognizing the need of the Presbyterian Church in Ghana for a partnership opportunity that will enable it to develop and implement a comprehensive development program to include the following components: health and medical, food and nutrition, evangelism, and education, and

4. Recognizing the need of sister churches of the Presbyterian Church USA to share in such partnerships and

5. Confronting the economic and social pressures that create pockets of hunger and need in our midst that need our support and witness.

Orange Presbytery will continue its witness to Christ's love through a hunger ministry as long as it remains in its present form and recommends to its successor(s) that it continue this participation through 1991 at the current level of support (approximately $130,000 per year based on the 1981-85 figures) so long as the gifts continue.

1. Pennies for Hunger will be continued as the primary financial promotion assisted by an education and information effort planned by the Hunger Committee and coordinated by the Hunger Action Enabler (HAE).

2. Funds will be used for:

   a. International Hunger Ministry Partnerships - $98,000 per year minimum.

            These figures are based on needs identified by the staff and Board of Directors of C.C.S. in their Five Year Plan and the counsel of appropriate staff members of the Division of International Missions (DIM) and negotiated with Hunger Committee.

b. The Hunger Committee of Orange Presbytery will work with C.C.S. and DIM to identify new partners for the center in order to build a broader support base for the center to share our partnership experiences.

WHEREAS, the Church Development Work Unit is very much interested in acquiring property in this area for the purpose of new church development, and it appears that the price for which the real property is offered is reasonable and be an entirely justifiable expenditure for the purposes of Presbytery in order to acquire the property now at this price and hold for new church development or other purposes of Orange Presbytery when it becomes appropriate;

IT IS NOW, THEREFORE RESOLVED, by Orange Presbytery in stated meeting duly assembled, this 22nd day of July 1986, that the Trustees of Orange Presbytery be authorized to accept the offer for the purchase of the property here in described, subject to the seller conveying good and fee simple title to Orange Presbytery, and that said Trustees execute on behalf of Orange Presbytery such instruments in writing of this acceptance.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Trustees of Orange Presbytery be authorized to assume the balance due on the current mortgage, the original principal amount of which is twenty three thousand nine hundred and eighty-five dollars ($23,985) as part of the total purchase offered and be authorized to further encumber said property if needed to complete the purchse.

A BRIEF AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT

I was born in the Ozark Mountains where my father was a Presbyterian minister and my mother a teacher at the Ozark School for Mountain Boys and Girls. I attended schools in Missouri and Louisville, KY, where my father held pastorates. I went to Agnes Scott College and graduated with an A.B. in English. I served Agnes Scott College as Alumnae Director and Editor of the alumnae magazine, the Agnes Scott Alumnae Quarterly. I joined the staffs of Eastburn-Siegel Advertising Agency and of McCann-Marschalk Advertising Agency, as copywriter. I served as Assistant Advertising Manager of the J.P. Allen Department Store in Atlanta. I married Mr. William Lee Rhodes of Elberton, GA, and have three sons: the Rev. Jan McAfee Rhodes, Mr. Peter DuBose Rhodes, and Mr. William L. Rhodes, III. My husband and I have 6 grandchildren. I served at my church in Decatur, where we have made our home for the past 44 years, as lead teacher, Primary II, founder of the Chrsitian Arts Fellowship, Senior High Youth Advisor, and author and producer of 17 plays for the sanctuary. I entered Columbia Theological Seminar in 1970 and graduated with a M. Div. degree. I served as Youth Minister to the Riverdale, GA Presbyterian Church at Lake Lanier, GA, and supplied at Bent Tree Presbyterian Church in Bent Tree, a resort in Georgia. I then served as pastor of the Randolph Presbyterian Church in High Point after having been called and examined by Orange Presbytery. I was ordained at the Randolph Church in March of 1982 and left in July 1985.

Before entering the Seminar I owned and operated the Jane Rhodes Advertising Agency located in Decatur for ten years. While a copywriter I wrote speeches for 3 governors of Georgia and travel and industrial brochures for the State of South Carolina. Two of my accounts while owning my own agency were the Chamber of Commerce of Hilton Head Island and Adventure Inn, now the Sheraton Inn. My winning slogans for Coca-Cola, Tab, Sprite, and Fanta, which I wrote as a copywriter for McCann-Marschalk were: "It's the Taste You Never Get Tired Of" and "Food Tastes Even Better With Coca-Cola" from which they made "Things Go Better With Coke."

Upon retirement, I plan to travel, read, study, and find a log cabin in the mountains as a summer retreat! My hobbies are music, writing, gardening and gourmet cooking. I plan to write a book about my experience at Randolph.

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

The following resolution was adopted by the governing body:

Whereas, during the drought of '86, when Orange Presbytery was convened at First Church in High Point, the day was indeed warm but the hospitality warmer.

Whereas motivating coffee and cold drinks greeted us alongside home-made muffins and sausage balls, 'twas but an appetizer for the grand feast at lunch so efficiently served admist flowers and fellowship.

Whereas dancers led us in prayer and even ministers appeared in t-shirts and shirt sleeves, those assembled were energized by a rousing rendition of "The Chicken."

Whereas we celebrated plans for continuing our ministry to the hungry at home and in Africa while aware that farmers in the mid-west are sharing their resources with our hungry livestock.

Whereas as the unity of the PC(USA), especially through its new structural design, not to mention the pension plan, was truly apparent in the enthusiasm of our General Assembly commissioners and through their vision we anticipate Moderator Ben Weir's January visit.

Whereas candidates were joyfully received, sermons attended to, charges given, and a retirement celebrated.

Therefore be it resolved that the Presbytery of Orange is truly indebted to and grateful for the love of Christ so wondrously displayed by all the folks at First Presbyterian Church in High Point.

CLOSING WORSHIP AND ADJOURNMENT

The governing body adjourned following closing worship to meet again in Stated Session on October 28, 1986 at the Hudson Memorial Church, Raleigh, N.C.

The Commission consists of Marsha Hooks, Jane Miller, Herbert Reese, Gray Clark and Donald Lannon as Chairman.

After investigation, deliberation and prayerful consideration of the matter, the Commission recommended to Presbytery that the pastoral relationship between The Rev. Jane Rhodes and the Randolph Church be dissolved effective July 23, 1985. Presbytery upheld that recommendation of the Commission by a vote of 85 for and 15 against. Eight others abstained.

The Rev. Rhodes filed a complaint with the Synod's Permanent Judicial Commission against the action of Presbytery. On October 3, 1985 Presbytery met in a called meeting to elect W. S. Harris, Laura Michael Spangler and Mary Lib Phipps as a Committee of Counsel to represent Orange Presbytery in responding to the complaint.

The case was heard by the Synod's Judicial Commission on April 4, 1986. The Judicial Commission did not uphold any of the Rev. Rhodes complaints or requests for relief. The case is now closed as a judicial issue.

The ministry at the Randolph Church is strong, unified and fruitful. The Rev. Mac Foust has been serving the church on a temporary basis. The church is once again strong and active and they have begun the process of seeking a new pastor under the direction of the Committee on Ministry.

The difficulties at the Randolph Church has been resolved and the Randolph Commission has completed its work. We, therefore, request that Orange Presbytery dissolve this Commission effective October 28, 1986.

   a. Enable the Council to lead the Presbytery in developing a mission strategy using existing statements as a guide.
   b. Review the mission strategy of the Presbytery at least annually.
   c. To encourage and enable congregations to develop congregational mission statements.
   d. Evaluate evangelism efforts of existing Work Units of Presbytery and as appropriate, determine needs and priorities and encourage Work Units to respond.
   e. To evaluate present social ministries of Presbytery in order to set priorities for coordination, and implementation and financial support through the Work Units of Presbytery. This is to include Urban Councils whose connection is to be clearly established through one of these Work Units and that the Manual of Orange Presbytery be amended to reflect the change.

3. That the Presbytery grant permission to Ernest Myatt Presbyterian Church to encumber their property with a loan in the amount of $45,000 for improvement of their parking lot and landscaping.

4. That a paragraph be added to the Orange Presbytery Manual, Part III, page 6 in the section "Special Educational Ministries" reading as follows: Evangelism Education & Strategy Committee has nine members and a chairperson appointed by the Unit. Its responsibilities include promoting, implementing, developing and supporting comprehensive strategies for evangelism in and through local congregations and special ministries for Christian witness. Consistent with the primary thrust of the work unit, a major concern will be the development of leaders for this facet of the church's ministry. At least annually, this committee will gather representatives from other work units of presbytery (Church Development, Special Ministries, Professional Development) and from Council's Mission and Evangelism Committee to evaluate, plan and develop a comprehensive strategy for evangelism within Orange Presbytery. REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

The governing body adopted the following Resolution as presented by the Resolutions Committee:

We came with a corporate vision, a vision that we on this day would be well-fed, well informed, well-fellowshipped, made comfortable if not comforted, but probably burdened if not bored.

Surely we have been well-fed, beginning with bread and muffins made at home and by caring hands able to satisfy us even sans coffee.

This was superceded only by lunch, delicious and nutritious.

We express deep gratitude to Heather Monroe and her cadre of caring women of being well-fed.

Thanks to Bill King and his efficient parking attendants and to the staff of Hudson Memorial for getting us in and getting us comfortable.

The vision was carried here, alas we discovered should have been based on one of our many dreams of last eve. Sandy McGeachy helped us to discover our failure to discover God's word while all we did was sleep and not listen.

We thank Sandy and Harriet Isbell for feeding us spiritually, able assisted by Elizabeth Puryear, the church organist.

Then God spoke through Dick Watts, and again we were fed, though not comforted.

Happily, our vision we carried in was not ours to behold.

Thanks to our moderator's adept agenda handling, committee chairs who were well-prepared and to the attentive commissioners as epitomized in the discussion of nominees to the Committee on Ministry.

Much matters cerebral did not prove to be over-taxing of brains or bottom.

We express gratitude to our Stated Clerk for his assistance during the meeting and the good preparation of Presbytery staff that made manageable and meaningful this stated meeting.

CLOSING WORSHIP

A. D. Ellison led the governing body in closing worship.

FINANCIAL REPORTS

The financial reports for the third quarter were admitted to record.
